IELTS Word List

Vocabulary List

Vocabulary and example	Write it

alternative n./adj. /ɔːlˈtɜːnətɪv/

another choice or possibility

Family: alternatively (adv.) Use it with: an alternative to · alternative energy

Cycling is a cheap alternative to driving.

circumstance n. /ˈsɜːkəmstæns/

a fact or condition that affects a situation

Use it with: under no circumstances · in some circumstances Tip: Usually plural: "in difficult circumstances".

Under these circumstances, the match was cancelled.

comment n./v. /ˈkɒment/

something you say or write to give an opinion

Family: commentary (n.) · commentator (n.) Use it with: comment on · make a comment

Several readers left comments under the article.

compensate v. /ˈkɒmpənseɪt/

to pay or give something because of a loss or harm

Family: compensation (n.) Use it with: compensate for · receive compensation

The airline compensated passengers for the long delay.

component n. /kəmˈpəʊnənt/

one of the parts that make up a machine or system

Use it with: a key component · electronic components

Exercise is an important component of a healthy lifestyle.

consent n./v. /kənˈsent/

agreement or permission, given after understanding what is involved

Use it with: give consent · without consent Tip: Consent to something; silence is not consent.

Photos of children need their parents' consent.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

considerable adj. /kənˈsɪdərəbl/

large in size, amount or importance

Family: considerably (adv.) Use it with: considerable effort · considerably higher Tip: Task 1: "considerably higher than…"

The project cost a considerable amount of money.

constant adj. /ˈkɒnstənt/

staying the same, or happening all the time

Family: constantly (adv.) Use it with: remain constant · constant noise Tip: Task 1: "remained constant at 20%".

The temperature remained constant throughout the day.

constrain v. /kənˈstreɪn/

to limit what someone can do

Family: constraint (n.) Use it with: time constraints · financial constraints

Small budgets constrain what schools can offer.

contribute v. /kənˈtrɪbjuːt/

to give money, time or ideas to help something

Family: contribution (n.) · contributor (n.) Use it with: contribute to · make a contribution Tip: Also "contribute to" a problem: "Cars contribute to air pollution."

Everyone contributed ideas to the group project.

convention n. /kənˈvenʃn/

a usual or accepted way of behaving; or a large meeting

Family: conventional (adj.) · convene (v.) Use it with: social conventions · a conventional method

By convention, the bride's family pays for the wedding.

coordinate v. /kəʊˈɔːdɪnət/

to organise people or parts so they work well together

Family: coordination (n.) · coordinator (n.) Use it with: coordinate efforts · good coordination

A manager coordinates the work of the different teams.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

core n./adj. /kɔ:/

the most important or central part

Use it with: core subjects · core values

Maths and English are core subjects at school.

corporate adj. /'kɔ:pərət/

relating to a large company

Family: corporation (n.) Use it with: corporate social responsibility · a large corporation

Corporate taxes pay for many public services.

correspond v. /ˌkɒrɪ'spɒnd/

to match or be similar; or to write letters to someone

Family: correspondence (n.) · corresponding (adj.) Use it with: correspond to · the corresponding period Tip: Task 1: "compared with the corresponding period last year".

The numbers in the table correspond to the bars in the chart.

criteria n. /kraɪ'tɪərɪə/

standards used to judge or decide something

Family: criterion (sing.) Use it with: meet the criteria · selection criteria Tip: Criteria is plural; one is a criterion.

The examiners use four criteria to mark your essay.

deduce v. /dɪ'dju:s/

to reach an answer from the facts you have

Family: deduction (n.) Use it with: deduce that… · logical deduction

From the footprints, the police deduced that two people were there.

demonstrate v. /'demənstreɪt/

to show clearly that something is true, or how it works

Family: demonstration (n.) Use it with: clearly demonstrate · demonstrate a skill

The experiment demonstrates that plants need light.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

document n./v. /'dɒkju:mənt/

an official paper; or to record details of something

Family: documentation (n.) · documentary (n.) Use it with: official documents · well documented

Bring your passport and other travel documents.

dominate v. /'dɒmɪneɪt/

to be the largest, strongest or most important

Family: dominant (adj.) · domination (n.) Use it with: dominate the market · the dominant group

Two companies dominate the smartphone market.

emphasis n. /'emfəsɪs/

special importance given to something

Family: emphasise (v.) Use it with: put emphasis on · strong emphasis

The new course puts more emphasis on speaking.

ensure v. /en'ʃʊə/

to make certain that something happens

Use it with: ensure that… · ensure safety Tip: Ensure = make sure; insure = buy insurance.

Check your answers to ensure that you have not made mistakes.

exclude v. /eks'klu:d/

to leave out or not allow in Family: exclusion (n.) · exclusive (adj.) Use it with: exclude from · socially excluded

Children under 12 are excluded from the competition.

12

framework n. /'freɪmwɜ:k/

a set of ideas or rules that give structure to something

Use it with: a legal framework · within a framework

The law provides a framework for protecting workers.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

fund n./v. /fʌnd/

money for a purpose; or to pay for something

Family: funding (n.) Use it with: government funding · raise funds

The museum is funded by ticket sales and donations.

illustrate v. /ˈɪləstreɪt/

to explain something by giving examples or pictures

Family: illustration (n.) Use it with: illustrate a point · a clear illustration Tip: Task 1: "The diagram illustrates…"

This example illustrates how quickly prices can change.

immigration n. /ˌɪmɪˈgreɪʃn/

the act of coming to live in another country

Family: immigrate (v.) · immigrant (n.) Use it with: immigration policy · illegal immigration Tip: Immigrate = come in; emigrate = leave.

Immigration has made the city more diverse.

imply v. /ɪmˈplaɪ/

to suggest something without saying it directly

Use it with: imply that… · strongly imply

His silence implied that he disagreed.

initial adj. /ɪˈnɪʃl/

happening at the beginning

Family: initially (adv.) Use it with: the initial stage · initial results

Initial costs are high, but solar panels save money later.

instance n. /ˈɪnstəns/

one example of something

Use it with: for instance · in this instance Tip: For instance = "for example".

There were several instances of cheating in the exam.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

interact v. /ˌɪntəˈrækt/

to talk or work together with others

Family: interaction (n.) · interactive (adj.) Use it with: interact with · social interaction

Online games let players interact with people around the world.

justify v. /ˈdʒʌstɪfaɪ/

to give a good reason for something

Family: justification (n.) Use it with: justify a decision · fully justified

Can the high cost of the stadium be justified?

layer n. /ˈleɪə/

a level of a material lying over or under another

Use it with: a layer of · the ozone layer

A thin layer of dust covered the furniture.

link n./v. /lɪŋk/

a connection between two things

Use it with: a link between · closely linked

Studies show a clear link between diet and health.

location n. /ləʊˈkeɪʃn/

a place or position

Family: locate (v.) · local (adj.) Use it with: a convenient location · be located in

The hotel is in a quiet location near the beach.

maximise v. /ˈmæksɪmaɪz/

to make something as large as possible

Family: maximum (n./adj.) Use it with: maximise profits · the maximum number

Farmers use fertiliser to maximise their harvest.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

minor adj. /ˈmaɪnə/

small or not very important

Family: minority (n.) Use it with: a minor problem · ethnic minorities

The accident caused only minor injuries.

negative adj. /ˈnegətɪv/

bad or harmful; or showing no

Family: negatively (adv.) · negate (v.) Use it with: a negative impact · negatively affect

Too much screen time can have a negative effect on sleep.

outcome n. /ˈaʊtkʌm/

the final result of something

Use it with: a positive outcome · the outcome of Nobody can predict the outcome of the election.

partner n. /ˈpɑːtnə/

a person or company you work with or live with Family: partnership (n.) Use it with: a business partner · in partnership with China is the country's biggest trading partner.

philosophy n. /fɪˈlɒsəfi/

the study of ideas about life; or a set of beliefs

Family: philosopher (n.) · philosophical (adj.) Use it with: a philosophy of · study philosophy

The school's philosophy is that every child can learn.

physical adj. /ˈfɪzɪkl/

relating to the body, or to things you can touch

Family: physically (adv.) Use it with: physical exercise · physical health

Physical activity is important for children's health.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

proportion n. /prəˈpɔːʃn/

a part of a whole, often compared to the whole Family: proportional (adj.) Use it with: a high proportion of · in proportion to Tip: Task 1: "the proportion of men who…"

A large proportion of students work part-time.

publish v. /ˈpʌblɪʃ/

to print a book or article, or put it online for people to read

Family: publisher (n.) · publication (n.) Use it with: publish a report · be published

The results will be published next month.

react v. /rɪˈækt/

to behave in a certain way because of something

Family: reaction (n.) Use it with: react to · a strong reaction

How did the public react to the news?

register v./n. /ˈredʒɪstə/

to put your name on an official list

Family: registration (n.) Use it with: register for · a registration form

You must register for the exam two months in advance.

rely on v. /rɪˈlaɪ ɒn/

to need or trust someone or something

Family: reliable (adj.) · reliance (n.) · reliability (n.) Use it with: rely heavily on · reliable data

Many families rely on two incomes.

remove v. /rɪˈmuːv/

to take something away

Family: removal (n.) Use it with: remove from · waste removal

Please remove your shoes before entering.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

scheme n. /skiːm/

an official plan or system

Use it with: a government scheme · a pension scheme Tip: In British English, scheme is neutral; in American English it can sound dishonest.

A new scheme gives free bicycles to students.

sequence n. /ˈsiːkwəns/

a series of events or things in a fixed order

Family: sequential (adj.) Use it with: in sequence · a sequence of events

Put the pictures in the right sequence.

sexism n. /ˈseksɪzəm/

unfair treatment of people because they are male or female

Family: sexist (adj.) · sex (n.) Use it with: fight sexism · sexist language Tip: In essays about equality, gender is usually the more neutral word.

Some job adverts still show sexism, for example by asking only for young men.

shift n./v. /ʃɪft/

a change in position or direction; or a period of work

Use it with: a shift in · a night shift

There has been a shift from print to online news.

specify v. /ˈspesɪfaɪ/

to state something clearly and exactly

Family: specification (n.) Use it with: clearly specify · unless otherwise specified

The rules specify that phones must be switched off.

sufficient adj. /səˈfɪʃənt/

enough for a purpose

Family: sufficiently (adv.) · insufficient (adj.) Use it with: sufficient evidence · sufficient time

Many people do not get sufficient sleep.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

task n. /tæsk/

a piece of work you have to do

Use it with: complete a task · a difficult task

Writing Task 1 asks you to describe a chart in 150 words.
1 150

technical adj. /ˈteknɪkl/

relating to practical knowledge, machines or methods

Family: technically (adv.) · technician (n.) Use it with: technical skills · technical support

The concert was delayed by a technical problem.

technique n. /tekˈniːk/

a way of doing something that needs skill

Use it with: a new technique · learn a technique

Skimming is a useful reading technique.

technology n. /tekˈnɒlədʒi/

scientific knowledge used to make machines and tools

Family: technological (adj.) Use it with: modern technology · technological progress

Technology has changed the way we shop.

valid adj. /ˈvælɪd/

legally acceptable, or based on good reasons

Family: validity (n.) · invalid (adj.) Use it with: a valid point · valid for Your passport must be valid for six months.

volume n. /ˈvɒljuːm/

the amount of space something fills, or an amount

Use it with: traffic volume · turn up the volume

The volume of traffic doubles at rush hour.