IELTS Word List

Vocabulary List

Vocabulary and example	Write it

academic adj./n. /ˌækəˈdemɪk/

relating to schools, universities and study

Family: academy (n.) · academically (adv.) Use it with: academic writing · academic performance

IELTS Academic is for people who want to study at university.

IELTS

adjust v. /əˈdʒʌst/

to change something a little to make it better or fit

Family: adjustment (n.) Use it with: adjust to · make adjustments

It takes time to adjust to life in a new country.

alter v. /ˈɒltə/

to change something, usually a little

Family: alteration (n.) Use it with: alter the plan · alter the shape

The city altered its bus routes after complaints.

amend v. /əˈmend/

to make small changes to a law or document

Family: amendment (n.) Use it with: amend a law · make an amendment

Parliament amended the law to protect online shoppers.

aware adj. /əˈweə/

knowing that something exists or is happening

Family: awareness (n.) Use it with: be aware of · raise awareness

Most people are aware of the dangers of smoking.

capacity n. /kəˈpæsɪti/

the amount something can hold or produce; or ability

Use it with: full capacity · the capacity to

The stadium has a capacity of 60,000 people.

60,000

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

challenge n./v. /ˈtʃælɪndʒ/

something difficult that tests your ability

Family: challenging (adj.) Use it with: face a challenge · a major challenge

Finding cheap housing is a big challenge for young people.

clause n. /klɔːz/

one part of a contract or law; or part of a sentence

Use it with: a contract clause · a relative clause

A clause in the contract says you cannot leave before a year.

compound n./adj. /ˈkɒmpaʊnd/

something made of two or more parts

Use it with: a chemical compound · a compound noun

Water is a compound of hydrogen and oxygen.

conflict n. /ˈkɒnflɪkt/

a serious disagreement or fight

Family: conflicting (adj.) Use it with: come into conflict · conflicting views

The two neighbours were in conflict over the fence.

consult v. /kənˈsʌlt/

to ask an expert or look in a book for advice or information

Family: consultant (n.) · consultation (n.) Use it with: consult a doctor · public consultation

Consult a doctor before starting a new diet.

contact n./v. /ˈkɒntækt/

communication with someone; or to phone, write or meet

Use it with: keep in contact · contact details Tip: Contact someone, not contact with someone (as a verb).

Please contact us if you have any questions.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

decline n./v. /dɪ'klaɪn/

a fall in amount or quality; or to become less

Use it with: a sharp decline · decline steadily Tip: Task 1: “declined steadily” or “a slight decline”.

The decline in coal use was steeper after 2016 than before it.

2016

discrete adj. /dɪ'skriːt/

separate and different from others

Use it with: discrete parts · discrete categories Tip: Do not confuse with discreet (careful not to cause attention).

The course is divided into six discrete units.

draft n./v. /dræft/

an early version of a piece of writing

Use it with: a first draft · draft a letter

Write a quick draft first, then improve it.

enable v. /e'neɪbl/

to make it possible for someone to do something

Use it with: enable someone to do Tip: Enable + person + to + verb.

The internet enables people to work from anywhere.

energy n. /'enədʒi/

power used to make machines work or give heat and light; or strength

Family: energetic (adj.) Use it with: renewable energy · energy consumption

Solar energy is becoming cheaper every year.

enforce v. /en'fɔːs/

to make people obey a law or rule

Family: enforcement (n.) Use it with: enforce a law · law enforcement

The police must enforce the speed limit.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

entity n. /'entɪti/

something that exists separately, such as a company

Use it with: a separate entity · a legal entity

The two schools now operate as one entity.

equivalent adj./n. /ɪ'kwɪvələnt/

equal in amount, value or meaning

Family: equivalence (n.) Use it with: equivalent to · the equivalent of A gap year is not equivalent to a year at university.

evolve v. /ɪ'vɒlv/

to develop slowly over time

Family: evolution (n.) · evolutionary (adj.) Use it with: evolve into · evolve over time

Mobile phones have evolved into small computers.

expand v. /ek'spænd/

to become larger, or make something larger

Family: expansion (n.) Use it with: expand rapidly · rapid expansion

The company plans to expand into Asia.

expose v. /ek'spəʊz/

to put someone in contact with something, often harmful

Family: exposure (n.) Use it with: be exposed to · exposure to Workers were exposed to dangerous chemicals.

external adj. /ek'stɜːnl/

outside a person, building or organisation

Family: externally (adv.) Use it with: external factors · external pressure

An external examiner checks the marks.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

facilitate v. /fə'sɪlɪteɪt/

to make something easier to happen

Family: facility (n.) · facilitator (n.) Use it with: facilitate communication · sports facilities

Good lighting facilitates learning.

fundamental adj. /ˌfʌndə'mentl/

basic and very important

Family: fundamentally (adv.) Use it with: a fundamental right · fundamental changes

Education is a fundamental human right.

generate v. /'dʒenəreɪt/

to produce or create something

Family: generation (n.) · generator (n.) Use it with: generate income · generate electricity

Wind farms generate electricity without burning fuel.

generation n. /ˌdʒenə'reɪʃn/

all the people born around the same time

Family: generational (adj.) Use it with: future generations · the younger generation

The younger generation uses social media more than older people.

image n. /'ɪmɪdʒ/

a picture; or the way people see someone or something

Use it with: a positive image · public image

The city wants to improve its image to attract tourists.

liberal adj. /'lɪbərəl/

open to new ideas and accepting of different behaviour

Family: liberty (n.) · liberate (v.) Use it with: liberal attitudes · liberal views

The country has liberal laws on free speech.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

licence n. /'laɪsəns/

an official paper that gives permission

Family: license (v.) Use it with: a driving licence · issue a licence Tip: British: licence (noun), license (verb). American: license for both.

You need a licence to drive a car.

logic n. /'lɒdʒɪk/

a way of thinking based on clear reasons

Family: logical (adj.) · logically (adv.) Use it with: the logic behind · a logical order

Each paragraph should follow a clear logic.

margin n. /'mɑːdʒɪn/

the empty space at the side of a page; or a small difference

Family: marginal (adj.) Use it with: a narrow margin · by a wide margin

The team won by a narrow margin.

medical adj. /'medɪkl/

relating to medicine and treating illness

Family: medicine (n.) Use it with: medical treatment · medical research

Everyone should have access to medical care.

mental adj. /'mentl/

relating to the mind

Family: mentally (adv.) · mentality (n.) Use it with: mental health · mental illness

Regular exercise is good for mental health.

modify v. /'mɒdɪfaɪ/

to change something slightly to improve it

Family: modification (n.) Use it with: slightly modified · genetically modified

The car was modified to use less fuel.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

monitor v./n. /ˈmɒnɪtə/

to watch or check something over time

Use it with: closely monitor · monitor progress

Doctors monitor patients' heart rates after surgery.

network n. /ˈnetwɜːk/

a system of connected lines, people or computers

Family: networking (n.) Use it with: a transport network · social network

The city has a large underground rail network.

notion n. /ˈnəʊʃn/

an idea or belief

Use it with: the notion that… · a vague notion

The notion that money brings happiness is too simple.

objective n./adj. /ɒbˈdʒektɪv/

an aim; or based on facts, not feelings

Family: objectively (adv.) · objectivity (n.) Use it with: the main objective · objective evidence

Newspapers should give an objective account of events.

oriented adj. /ˈɔːrɪəntɪd/

aimed at or focused on a certain thing

Family: orient (v.) · orientation (n.) Use it with: family-oriented · career-oriented · orientation week

The course is very career-oriented.

perspective n. /pəˈspektɪv/

a way of thinking about something

Use it with: from my perspective · a different perspective Tip: Essays: "From an economic perspective, …".

Travel gives you a new perspective on your own country.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

precise adj. /prɪˈsaɪs/

exact and accurate

Family: precisely (adv.) · precision (n.) Use it with: precise details · to be precise

Give precise figures in your report.

prime adj. /praɪm/

main or most important; or of the best quality

Use it with: prime importance · a prime location

Location is the prime reason for the high rent.

psychology n. /saɪˈkɒlədʒi/

the study of the mind and how people behave

Family: psychological (adj.) · psychologist (n.) Use it with: child psychology · psychological effects

She is studying child psychology.

pursue v. /pəˈsjuː/

to try to achieve something over a long time

Family: pursuit (n.) Use it with: pursue a career · pursue a goal

Many graduates pursue a career in finance.

ratio n. /ˈreɪʃɪəʊ/

the relationship between two amounts, shown as two numbers

Use it with: a ratio of 1:20 · the ratio of X to Y

The teacher-to-student ratio is one to twenty.

reject v. /rɪˈdʒekt/

to refuse to accept something

Family: rejection (n.) Use it with: reject an offer · reject an idea

The council rejected the plan for a new shopping centre.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

revenue n. /ˈrevənjuː/

money that a business or government receives

Use it with: tax revenue · generate revenue

Tourism brings in a lot of revenue for the island.

stable adj. /ˈsteɪbl/

not changing much; firm

Family: stability (n.) · stabilise (v.) Use it with: remain stable · a stable job Tip: Task 1: use it only when the figure really stays close.

The share of rail travel remained stable at about 12 per cent.
12%

style n. /staɪl/

a way of doing something; or a fashion

Family: stylish (adj.) Use it with: a teaching style · a writing style

Each teacher has a different style.

substitute n./v. /ˈsʌbstɪtjuːt/

something used instead of another thing

Family: substitution (n.) Use it with: a substitute for · substitute X for Y

There is no substitute for hard work.

sustainable adj. /səˈsteɪnəbl/

able to continue without harming the environment

Family: sustain (v.) · sustainability (n.) Use it with: sustainable development · sustainable energy

We need more sustainable ways of producing food.

symbol n. /ˈsɪmbl/

a sign or object that stands for something

Family: symbolic (adj.) · symbolise (v.) Use it with: a symbol of · a status symbol

The dove is a symbol of peace.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

target n./v. /ˈtɑːgɪt/

a result you try to achieve; or to aim at a group

Use it with: set a target · meet a target · target young people

The government has set a target of zero emissions by 2060.
2060

transition n. /trænˈsɪʃn/

a change from one state or stage to another

Family: transit (n.) · transitional (adj.) Use it with: the transition from… to… · public transit

The transition from school to university can be difficult.

trend n. /trend/

a general direction in which something changes

Use it with: an upward trend · a downward trend · the overall trend Tip: Task 1 overview: "The overall trend was upward."

The chart shows an upward trend in online sales.

version n. /ˈvɜːʃn/

one form of something that is a little different from others

Use it with: the latest version · an updated version

The film is a modern version of an old story.

welfare n. /ˈwelfeə/

health, happiness and safety; or government help for people in need

Use it with: animal welfare · the welfare state

Animal welfare groups want stricter laws on farming.

whereas conj. /ˈweəræz/

used to compare two different facts

Use it with: X rose, whereas Y fell Tip: Task 1 comparisons: "X rose, whereas Y fell."

Men preferred football, whereas women preferred tennis.