Word Quest 1

List 28 · The natural world

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

attack v./n. /əˈtæk/

to try to hurt someone or damage something

Family: attacks · attacked · attacker (n.) Use it with: attack someone · a heart attack

A big seagull attacked my sandwich on the beach.

danger n. /ˈdeɪndʒə/

the possibility that something bad will happen

Family: dangers · dangerous (adj.) Use it with: in danger · out of danger Tip: Noun "danger"; adjective "dangerous": a dangerous road.

The sign said "Danger! Deep water."

destroy v. /dɪˈstrɔɪ/

to damage something so badly that it cannot be used

Family: destroys · destroyed · destruction (n.) Use it with: completely destroy

The fire destroyed three houses.

hero n. /ˈhɪərəʊ/

a brave person whom people admire

Family: heroes (pl.) · heroic (adj.) Use it with: a national hero · a superhero Tip: Plural: heroes, with -es.

The firefighter who saved the baby is a real hero.

kill v. /kɪl/

to make someone or something die

Family: kills · killed · killer (n.) Use it with: kill time Tip: Kill time means do something while you wait.

Don't kill the spider: put it outside.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

moon n. /muːn/

the round thing that shines in the sky at night

Family: moons Use it with: the full moon · moonlight · a new moon

The moon was full and bright on Mid-Autumn night.

planet n. /ˈplænɪt/

a large round object in space that moves around a star

Family: planets Use it with: planet Earth · the planets

Mars is called the red planet.

risk n./v. /rɪsk/

the chance that something bad will happen

Family: risks · risky (adj.) Use it with: take a risk · at risk

There is a risk of storms this afternoon.

safety n. /ˈseɪfti/

being safe from danger

Family: safe (adj.) · safely (adv.) Use it with: for safety · road safety · safety first

For your safety, wear a helmet on your bike.

save v. /seɪv/

to keep someone or something safe from danger; also, to keep money

Family: saves · saved Use it with: save a life · save money · save time

The lifeguard saved a boy from the waves.

shoot v. /ʃuːt/

to fire a gun or arrow; also, to kick or throw a ball at a goal

Family: shoots · shot Use it with: shoot a film · shoot at Tip: Also means film: They shot the film in Hong Kong.

He shot the ball, and it went straight into the net.

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

star n. /stɑː/

a bright point of light in the night sky; also, a famous person

Family: stars Use it with: a film star · a shooting star

On clear nights we can see thousands of stars in the countryside.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn