Word Quest 2

List 8 · Jobs and work

Vocabulary and example	Write it

architect n. /ˈɑːkɪtekt/

a person who designs buildings

Family: architects · architecture (n.) Use it with: a famous architect Tip: The “ch” sounds like “k”: AR-ki-tect.

The architect designed a school shaped like a ship.

barber n. /ˈbɑːbə/

a person whose job is to cut men’s hair

Family: barbers Use it with: go to the barber’s

The barber cut my hair too short again.

clerk n. /klɑːk/

a person who works in an office or a shop, keeping records

Family: clerks Use it with: a bank clerk · an office clerk Tip: British English: “clark”; American English: “clurk”.

The bank clerk counted the money twice.

client n. /ˈklaɪənt/

a person who pays a professional for a service

Family: clients Use it with: a client of · meet a client Tip: A “customer” buys in a shop; a “client” pays for a service.

The lawyer has a meeting with a new client.

colleague n. /ˈkɒliːg/

a person you work with

Family: colleagues Use it with: a work colleague · a former colleague

My mum is having dinner with her colleagues tonight.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

crew n. /kruː/

the people who work on a ship, plane or film

Family: crews Use it with: cabin crew · film crew

The plane’s crew gave everyone a blanket.

duty n. /ˈdjuːti/

something you must do because it’s your job or what’s right

Family: duties Use it with: on duty · off duty · do your duty

It’s the guard’s duty to check every bag.

employ v. /ɛmˈplɔɪ/

to give someone a paid job

Family: employs · employed · employer (n.) · employee (n.) Use it with: employ someone · be employed

The factory employs three hundred workers.

factory n. /ˈfæktəri/

a building where machines make things

Family: factories Use it with: a factory worker · a toy factory

My uncle works in a car factory.

hire v. /ˈhaɪə/

to give someone a job; also, to pay to use something

Family: hires · hired Use it with: hire staff · hire a car · for hire

The restaurant hired two new cooks.

journalist n. /ˈdʒɜːnəlɪst/

a person who writes news for newspapers, websites or TV

Family: journalists · journalism (n.) Use it with: a sports journalist

The journalist asked the star about her new film.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

manage v. /ˈmænɪdʒ/

to be in charge of people or a business; also, to succeed in doing something

Family: manages · managed · manager (n.) · management (n.) Use it with: manage a team · manage to do Tip: Manage to + verb means do something difficult: I managed to finish on time.

My aunt manages a small hotel.

miner n. /ˈmaɪnə/

a person who works underground digging coal or metals

Family: miners · mine (n./v.) Use it with: a coal miner Tip: Don't confuse with "minor" (small).

My great-grandfather was a coal miner.

produce v. /prəˈdjuːs/

to make or grow something

Family: produces · produced · product (n.) · production (n.) Use it with: produce food · produce energy

This farm produces apples and pears.

professional adj./n. /prəˈfeʃənl/

doing a job that needs special training; or paid to do a sport

Family: professionally (adv.) Use it with: a professional player · turn professional

She's a professional tennis player.

retire v. /rɪˈtaɪə/

to stop working because of age

Family: retires · retired · retirement (n.) Use it with: retire from Grandpa retired at sixty, and now he fishes every day.

role n. /rəʊl/

the job or position someone has; also, a part in a film or play

Family: roles Use it with: play a role · a key role · role model Tip: A "role model" is someone you want to be like.

She got the main role in the school play.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

secretary n. /ˈsekrətri/

a person in an office who answers calls, writes letters and keeps records

Family: secretaries Use it with: a school secretary

The secretary said the manager was busy.

task n. /tæsk/

a piece of work that you have to do

Family: tasks Use it with: a difficult task · task list

Your first task is to read the article.