Word Quest 2

List 23 · Describing things 1

Vocabulary and example	Write it

actual adj. /ˈæktʃuːəl/

real; true, not what you thought or guessed

Family: actually (adv.) Use it with: the actual cost · in actual fact

The actual price was double what the website said.

adapt v. /əˈdæpt/

to change to fit a new situation

Family: adapts · adapted Use it with: adapt to · adapt a story

It took me a month to adapt to my new school.

apart adv. /əˈpɑːt/

separated by a distance; or into pieces

Use it with: fall apart · take apart · apart from Tip: Apart from means except.

Our houses are only 200 metres apart.

200 metres

available adj. /əˈveɪləbl/

that you can get, buy or use

Family: availability (n.) Use it with: available for · available to

Is this seat available?

base n. /beɪs/

the bottom part of something; also, a main place for work

Family: bases · based Use it with: the base of · based on · an army base

The lamp has a heavy base so it won't fall over.

beauty n. /ˈbjuːti/

the quality of being very nice to look at

Family: beautiful (adj.) Use it with: natural beauty · Beauty and the Beast

The beauty of the mountains took our breath away.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

blank adj. /blæŋk/

with nothing written or drawn on it

Use it with: a blank page · go blank Tip: My mind went blank = I suddenly forgot everything.

Write your answer in the blank space.

block n./v. /blɒk/

a large solid piece; also, a group of buildings; or to stop something passing

Family: blocks · blocked Use it with: a block of ice · around the block · block the way

A fallen tree blocked the road.

border n. /ˈbɔːdə/

the line between two countries or areas

Family: borders Use it with: cross the border · on the border

We crossed the border into Vietnam.

boxed adj. /bɒkst/

packed in a box

Family: box (n./v.) Use it with: a boxed set · boxed lunch

We bought a boxed set of all seven books.

broad adj. /brɔːd/

wide

Family: broader · broadly (adv.) Use it with: broad shoulders · a broad river

He has broad shoulders from swimming.

cube n. /kjuːb/

a solid shape with six equal square sides

Family: cubes Use it with: an ice cube · a sugar cube

Put two ice cubes in my drink, please.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

damage v./n. /ˈdæmɪdʒ/

to harm or break something

Family: damages · damaged Use it with: cause damage · badly damaged

The storm damaged the roof of our school.

exact adj. /ɛgˈzækt/

completely correct in every detail

Family: exactly (adv.) Use it with: the exact time · exact amount

What's the exact time?

fake adj./n. /feɪk/

not real, but made to look real

Family: fakes Use it with: fake news · a fake smile

That's a fake designer bag; the real one costs 20,000 yuan.

20,000 yuan

fantastic adj. /fænˈtæstɪk/

very good; wonderful

Family: fantastically (adv.) Use it with: a fantastic idea · absolutely fantastic

We had a fantastic time at the beach.

formal adj. /ˈfɔːml/

serious and following rules, for important occasions

Family: formally (adv.) · informal (adj.) Use it with: formal clothes · a formal letter

You need formal clothes for the wedding.

gap n. /gæp/

an empty space between two things

Family: gaps Use it with: fill the gap · mind the gap

There's a gap between his front teeth.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn