Word Quest 3

List 4 · Home and daily life

Vocabulary and example	Write it

accessory n. /əkˈsesəri/

a small extra thing, like a bag, belt or phone case

Family: accessories Use it with: fashion accessories

She bought a new phone and lots of accessories for it.

basement n. /ˈbeɪsmənt/

a room or floor below ground level

Family: basements Use it with: in the basement

We keep our bikes in the basement.

basin n. /ˈbeɪsn/

a large bowl for washing; also, the area a river drains

Family: basins Use it with: a wash basin

Fill the basin with warm water and wash your face.

bathe v. /beɪð/

to wash your body or someone else's in water; also, to swim

Family: bathes · bathed Use it with: bathe in · bathe a baby Tip: Noun "bath" (short a); verb "bathe" (long a).

We bathe the baby every evening.

cot n. /kɒt/

a small bed with high sides for a baby

Family: cots Tip: American English calls this a "crib"; for Americans, a "cot" is a small folding bed.

The baby is sleeping in her cot.

cottage n. /ˈkɒtɪdʒ/

a small house in the countryside

Family: cottages Use it with: a country cottage

My grandparents live in a little cottage by the river.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

cozy adj. /ˈkəʊzi/

warm, comfortable and safe

Family: cozier · coziness (n.) Use it with: warm and cozy Tip: British English writes "cosy".

Our living room is very cozy in winter.

drain n./v. /dreɪn/

a pipe that takes away dirty water; or to let liquid flow away

Family: drains · drained Use it with: down the drain · drain the pasta Tip: Down the drain means wasted.

Hair blocked the drain in the shower.

fashionable adj. /ˈfæʃənəbl/

popular at a particular time

Family: fashionably (adv.) · fashion (n.) Use it with: very fashionable

Wide jeans are fashionable again.

flashlight n. /ˈflæʃlaɪt/

a small electric light that you carry

Family: flashlights Use it with: shine a flashlight Tip: American English; British English says "torch".

Bring a flashlight; it's dark in the cave.

landlord n. /ˈlændlɔːd/

a person who rents out a house or flat

Family: landlords · landlady (f.)

Our landlord fixed the heating.

laundry n. /ˈlɔːndri/

clothes that need washing, or that have just been washed

Use it with: do the laundry · a laundry basket

I hang the laundry on the balcony.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

leather n. /ˈleðə/

animal skin used to make shoes, bags and jackets

Use it with: leather shoes · a leather bag

My dad has an old leather jacket.

mow v. /məʊ/

to cut grass with a machine

Family: mows · mowed · mown · mower (n.) Use it with: mow the lawn

My job on Saturdays is to mow the lawn.

nursery n. /ˈnɜːsəri/

a room for a baby; also, a school for very young children

Family: nurseries Use it with: nursery school · plant nursery

They painted the nursery yellow before the baby came.

pad n. /pæd/

a set of sheets of paper fixed together; also, a soft thick piece of material

Family: pads Use it with: a notepad · knee pads

Write the phone number on the pad by the phone.

rack n. /ræk/

a frame or shelf for holding things

Family: racks Use it with: a shoe rack · a bike rack · a coat rack

Put your shoes on the shoe rack.

rag n. /ræg/

an old piece of cloth for cleaning

Family: rags Use it with: an old rag · in rags Tip: In rags means wearing old torn clothes.

Use a rag to wipe the oil off the bike.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

robe n. /rəʊb/

a long loose piece of clothing

Family: robes Use it with: a bath robe

After the shower, he put on a warm robe.

staircase n. /ˈsteəkeɪs/

a set of stairs inside a building, with its rails

Family: staircases Use it with: a spiral staircase

The old house has a beautiful wooden staircase.

terrace n. /ˈterɪs/

a flat area outside a house or restaurant; also, a row of joined houses

Family: terraces Use it with: a roof terrace · rice terraces Tip: Rice terraces are farm steps cut into hills.

We had breakfast on the terrace in the sun.