Word Quest 5

List 18 · Moving and doing

Vocabulary and example	Write it accelerate v. /əkˈseləreɪt/ to go faster Family: accelerates · accelerated · acceleration (n.) The car accelerated onto the motorway.
circulate v. /ˈsɜːkjʊleɪt/ to move around; also, to pass from person to person Family: circulates · circulated · circulation (n.) Blood circulates through the body.
cling v. /klɪŋ/ to hold on tightly Family: clings · clung Use it with: cling to The baby monkey clung to its mother.
clockwise adv./adj. /ˈklɒkwaɪz/ in the direction a clock's hands move Tip: Opposite: anticlockwise (US: counterclockwise). Turn the key clockwise.
cram v. /kræm/ to push too much into a small space; also, to study hard just before an exam Family: crams · crammed Use it with: cram for an exam I crammed all my clothes into one bag.
distribute v. /ˈdɪstrɪbjuːt/ to give things to many people Family: distributes · distributed · distribution (n.) Volunteers distributed food to the families.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

duplicate v./n. /ˈdjuːplɪkeɪt/

to make an exact copy

Family: duplicates · duplicated

Can you duplicate this key?

eliminate v. /ɪˈlɪmɪneɪt/

to remove completely; also, to knock out of a competition

Family: eliminates · eliminated

Our team was eliminated in the first round.

flock n./v. /flɒk/

a group of birds or sheep; or to come together in large numbers

Family: flocks · flocked

Tourists flock to the beach in summer.

fluid n./adj. /ˈfluːɪd/

a liquid; also, smooth and graceful

Family: fluids

Drink plenty of fluids when you're ill.

hack v. /hæk/

to get into a computer system illegally; also, to cut roughly

Family: hacks · hacked · hacker (n.)

Someone hacked my email account.

haste n. /heɪst/

doing something too quickly

Family: hasty (adj.) Use it with: in haste

In her haste, she forgot her keys.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

haul v./n. /hɔːl/

to pull something heavy

Family: hauls · hauled

They hauled the boat onto the beach.

lag v./n. /læg/

to move more slowly than others

Family: lags · lagged Use it with: jet lag

The youngest runner lagged behind.

merge v. /mɜːdʒ/

to join together into one

Family: merges · merged · merger (n.)

The two roads merge after the bridge.

mimic v. /ˈmɪmɪk/

to copy someone's voice or actions, often to be funny

Family: mimics · mimicked

My parrot can mimic the doorbell.

nick v./n. /nɪk/

to cut slightly; also, (informal) to steal

Family: nicks · nicked Use it with: in the nick of time Tip: In the nick of time means just in time.

I nicked my finger with the knife.

peer v./n. /pɪə/

to look carefully; also, a person of the same age

Family: peers · peered Use it with: peer pressure

She peered through the fog.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

penetrate v. /ˈpenɪtreɪt/

to go into or through something

Family: penetrates · penetrated

The bullet couldn't penetrate the wall.

plunge v. /plʌndʒ/

to fall or jump suddenly

Family: plunges · plunged

He plunged into the icy lake.

prod v. /prɒd/

to push with a finger or stick

Family: prods · prodded

She prodded me to wake me up.

propel v. /prəˈpel/

to push or drive forward

Family: propels · propelled

The wind propelled the boat across the lake.

sever v. /ˈsevə/

to cut through completely

Family: severs · severed

The storm severed the power lines.

substitute n./v. /ˈsʌbstɪtjuːt/

a person or thing used instead of another

Family: substitutes · substituted

We had a substitute teacher today.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it
swift adj. /swɪft/ fast Family: swifter · swiftly (adv.) The police made a swift decision.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn