RW.1-3 · Key reading: messages and short texts

A2 Key and B1 Preliminary (KET, PET) · Cambridge English · A2 Key (KET) · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
A2 Key (KET)	A2 Key (KET) is an English exam at A2 level. A2
street /striːt/	The shop is on the main street.
official handbook /əˈfɪʃl ˈhændbʊk/	The official handbook explains each part of the exam.
paraphrase /ˈpærəfreɪz/	A paraphrase says the same thing in other words.
strategy /ˈstrætədʒi/	A good strategy is to read the questions first.
hunt /hʌnt/	We hunt for the missing keys under the table.
photograph /ˈfəʊtəgræf/	Can I take a photograph of you?
map /mæp/	Use the map to find the station.
knowledge /ˈnɒlɪdʒ/	Use your knowledge of the topic.
purpose /ˈpɜːpəs/	Think about the purpose of the text: why was it written?
chunks /tʃʌŋks/	Learn chunks like “by the way” as one piece. “by the way” suspicious /səˈspɪʃəs/	Be suspicious of an answer that uses the same word as the text.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn scratch paper /skrætʃˈpeɪpə/ Use scratch paper to plan your answer.