

6 A car park system uses a camera to record the registration number of each car as it enters and leaves the car park.

Explain how artificial intelligence is used in the car park system to identify the car’s registration number.

[4]