Principles of Design

AP 2-D Art and Design · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
principles of design /ˈprɪnsɪplz ɒv dɪˈzaɪn/	Balance and contrast are principles of design.
balance /ˈbæləns/	A large shape on one side and two small shapes on the other give balance.
Symmetrical (formal) balance /sɪˈmetrɪkl ˈbæləns/	A face drawn the same on both sides has symmetrical (formal) balance.
Asymmetrical (informal) balance /ˌeɪsɪˈmetrɪkl ˈbæləns/	One big tree balanced by three small houses is asymmetrical (informal) balance.
visual weight /ˈvɪʒuːəl weɪt/	A bright red spot has a lot of visual weight.
Radial balance /ˈreɪdɪəl ˈbæləns/	A flower seen from above shows radial balance.
Emphasis /ˈemfəsɪs/	The bright red coat gives emphasis to the girl.
focal point /ˈfəʊkl pɔɪnt/	The focal point draws the eye first.
Subordination /ˌsʌbɔːdɪˈneɪʃn/	The soft grey background shows subordination: it supports the main figure.
Contrast /ˈkɒntræst/	Black next to white gives strong contrast.
visual hierarchy /ˈvɪʒuːəl ˈhaɪərɑːki/	Big, bold titles create a visual hierarchy on the poster.
Movement /ˈmuːvmənt/	Curved lines give the picture a sense of movement.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
rhythm /ˈrɪðəm/	Repeated shapes create a visual rhythm.
progressive /prəˈgresɪv/	Circles that slowly get bigger give progressive rhythm.
Repetition /ˌrepəˈtɪʃn/	Repetition of the same shape ties the picture together.
pattern /ˈpætn/	The wallpaper has a flower pattern.
motif /məʊˈtiːf/	Water is a motif that appears again and again.
Proportion /prəˈpɔːʃn/	The head is too big for the body: the proportion is wrong.
scale /skeɪl/	The large scale of the painting makes it feel powerful.
Hierarchical scale /haɪəˈrɑːkɪkl skeɪl/	In old Egyptian art, hierarchical scale shows the king bigger than his servants.
golden ratio /ˈgəʊldn ˈreɪʃiəʊ/	Some artists use the golden ratio of about 1.6 to divide a picture. 1.6
Unity /ˈjuːnɪti/	Using the same colours everywhere gives the picture unity.
variety /vəˈraɪəti/	Different sizes of circles add variety.
proximity /prɒkˈsɪmɪti/	Shapes placed in proximity look like a group.
continuity /kɒntɪˈnjuːɪti/	Repeated colours give the series continuity.
Harmony /ˈhɑːməni/	Soft blues and greens create harmony.

Word	Example
Composition /ˌkɒmpəˈzɪʃn/	The composition leads the eye to the centre of the picture.
picture plane /ˈpɪktʃə pleɪn/	The picture plane is the flat surface of the drawing.
format /ˈfɔːmæt/	A tall, narrow format suits a portrait.
rule of thirds /ruːl ɒv θɜːdz/	The rule of thirds puts key things a third of the way across.
Cropping /ˈkrɒpɪŋ/	Cropping the photo removed the empty sky.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn