Investigate: Inquiry and the Artistic Process

AP 2-D Art and Design · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
inquiry /ɪn'kwaɪəri/	Your inquiry starts with a clear question.
sustained investigation /sə'steɪnd ɪnˌvestɪ'geɪʃn/	A sustained investigation follows one idea through many works.
experiences /ek'spɪərɪənsɪz/	Her own experiences of moving home shaped her art.
observation /ɒbzə'veɪʃn/	Draw from direct observation, not from a photo.
materials, processes, and ideas /mə'tɪərɪəlz 'prəʊsesɪz ænd aɪ'dɪəz/	Your materials, processes, and ideas should all work together.
context /'kɒntekst/	Use the context, the words around a word, to guess its meaning.
traditions /trə'dɪʃnz/	Dances keep old traditions alive.
integrity /ɪn'tegrɪti/	Artistic integrity means you never copy someone else's work as your own.
evaluated /ɪ'vælju:eɪtɪd/	The portfolio is evaluated by trained readers.
criteria /kraɪ'tɪərɪə/	The teacher marks the work against clear criteria.
synthesis /'sɪnθəsɪs/	The synthesis joins useful facts from several notes.
critique /krɪ'ti:k/	A critique gives feedback on artwork.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
Documentation /ˌdɒkju:mən'teɪʃn/	Documentation with photos shows each stage of the work.
process journal /'prəʊses 'dʒɜ:nl/	Keep a process journal of your tests and ideas.
lines of inquiry /laɪnz ɒv ɪn'kwaɪəri/	Two lines of inquiry guided her project: memory and home.