Organization, Coherence, and Style

AP English Language and Composition · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
coherence /kəʊ'hɪərəns/	Coherence means ideas connect in a clear order.
style /staɪl/	The writer's style includes word choice and sentence length.
clause /klɔːz/	A clause has a subject and a verb.
repetition /ˌrepə'tɪʃn/	Avoid repetition: do not use the same word again and again.
synonym /'sɪnənɪm/	"Big" is a synonym for "large". "Big" "large" pronoun reference	Unclear pronoun reference confuses readers: who is "he"? "he"
parallel structure /'pærəlel 'strʌktʃə/	Parallel structure uses the same form: "to read, to write and to think". "to read, to write and to think"。 transitional element	A transitional element like "however" links ideas. "however" denotation	The denotation of "home" is the place you live. "home" connotation /kɒnə'teɪʃn/	The connotation of "home" includes warmth and safety. "home" adjective /'ædʒɪktɪv/	"Quiet" is an adjective. "Quiet" adverb	"Quickly" is an adverb. "Quickly"
modify	Adjectives modify nouns.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
word choice /wɜːd tʃɔɪs/	The writer's word choice can make a place sound happy or frightening.
disposition /ˌdɪspə'zɪʃn/	The writer's disposition is their general attitude toward the topic.
unified	A unified paragraph sticks to one idea.
topic sentence /'tɒpɪk 'sentəns/	The topic sentence gives the main idea of the paragraph.