Longer Fiction or Drama I

AP English Literature and Composition · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
expectation /ekspɪk'teɪʃn/	The ending breaks our expectation: it is not what we thought.
motive	Money was his motive for lying.
dynamic character /daɪ'næmɪk 'kærɪktə/	A dynamic character changes during the story.
static character	A static character stays the same from start to end.
characterisation	Characterisation is how the writer shows what a character is like.
episode	Each episode of the novel shows a different summer.
scene	The play's first scene takes place in a kitchen.
character development	Her character development takes her from shy to brave.
plot summary	A plot summary only retells events; analysis explains them.
conflict /'kɒnflɪkt/	The story's conflict is between a father and his son.
values /'vælju:z/	People's values are what they think is important.
internal conflict	His internal conflict is whether to tell the truth.
external conflict	The storm creates an external conflict for the sailors.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
intersect /ˌɪntə'sekt/	The two stories intersect when the brothers finally meet.
primary conflict	The primary conflict is between the son and his father.
inconsistency	There is an inconsistency in what the narrator says.
thesis statement	Your thesis statement gives your main argument in one sentence.
line of reasoning /laɪn ɒv 'ri:zənɪŋ/	The line of reasoning is the chain of ideas leading to your thesis.
commentary /'kɒməntri/	Your commentary explains how the quotation supports your point.
sufficient	Two quotations may not be sufficient to prove your claim.
grammar /'græmə/	Good grammar makes your sentences correct and clear.
theme	One theme of the novel is the cost of pride.