1. "A creature driven and derided by vanity"

   The epiphany is a harsh self-judgement.

2. Twice

   The two proposals measure the shift.

3. "mighty free and easy and comfortable"

   Other places are "cramped up and smothery".

4. Ten years in a few pages

   The first section covers a single day.

5. Farquhar died on the bridge; the escape was imagined

   The escape happened in the instant of falling.

6. True

   The double meaning makes the setting symbolic.

7. False

   The occurrences must connect to one idea.

8. To criticise a system that treats people as things; To show how one character sees another; To show a character losing their humanity

   The effect depends on who makes the comparison.

9. True

   An undefended clause breaks a promise.

10. A paragraph arguing against your thesis; A detail you have to skip; A quotation that will not fit

    Change the claim, not the evidence.
