

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- reveal different information; develop different attitudes; influence different interpretations

2.2

- the disagreement supplies a comparison rather than a failure to decide

2.3

(a)

- about both characters — what each noticed, omitted and assumed

(b)

- what the difference shows, not who is right

3.1 A

- interpretations of the text

3.2 B

- what the difference shows

3.3

(a)

- that settling the question is not the point

(b)

- analyse what each account reveals about its speaker and what the text gains by leaving the matter open
