

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- a character who illuminates, through contrast, the traits, attributes or values of another character

2.2

- an antagonist opposes the protagonist; a foil illuminates another character through contrast

2.3

(a)

- what would we not see in the main character if this foil were absent

(b)

- contrast

3.1 A

- contrast

3.2 A

- opposition

3.3

(a)

- a foil

(b)

- the protagonist's recklessness would have nothing to be measured against, so the reader would have no scale for how far it goes
