

1 Reading a character from the page – Part 1 —Answers

Answers

Work through these after you have tried the questions yourself.

2.1 description; dialogue; behaviour.

2.2 evidence that the character's words and actions diverge, which is more informative than either channel alone.

2.3 any three of: the narrator; another character; the character themselves; a speaker.

2.4 it is the rival's view of the subject, so it reveals the rival's perspective as well as anything true of the person described.

2.5 how a character understands their circumstances; informed by any two of background, personality, biases, relationships. \
