

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- he objected to the exclusive reliance on reason and emphasised emotion in the moral improvement of self and society

2.2

- both privilege inner experience over the demonstrable, and the CED describes the revival as consistent with the Romantic movement

2.3

(a)

- that the events are the evidence for the claim

(b)

- revolution, war and rebellion of the preceding decades

3.1 B

- reason as the only faculty is the target

3.2 B

- challenge, not replacement

3.3

(a)

- Romanticism; religious revival, including Methodism

(b)

- they share a temper — inner experience above the demonstrable