

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- existentialism was given impetus; postmodernism was produced

2.2

- military and ideological conflict; modern secularism; rapid social changes

2.3

(a)

- it reports the reaction's own description of its target rather than endorsing it

(b)

- the revolts of 1968

3.1 B

- the CED's continuity claim

3.2 B

- U.S. influence is the fourth

3.3

(a)

- that they had arrived and were widespread enough to revolt against

(b)

- the same conditions produced both, so an account of either alone misdescribes the decade