

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- intensive = high input (labour/capital) on a small area; extensive = low input over a large area

2.2

- each crop needs certain temperature/rainfall; a region can only grow crops suited to its climate

2.3

(a)

- subsistence

(b)

- intensive — much labour on a small plot for maximum food

3.1 B

- low input over a vast area, for sale = extensive commercial

3.2 B

- climate limits what can grow

3.3

(a)

- commercial agriculture

(b)

- climate/soil/water suited to his crop