

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- categorical sorts individuals into groups; quantitative is a numerical measurement

2.2

- discrete takes countable values; continuous can take any value in a range

2.3

- categorical

3.1 B

3.2 C

3.3

(a)

- categorical

(b)

- discrete quantitative

(c)

- continuous quantitative