AP United States History

1. the 1960s

A twenty-year run-up.

2. continued deregulation of many industries; significant tax cuts

'Continue' means deregulation was already under way.

3. limited military interventions; speeches; diplomatic efforts; a buildup of nuclear and conventional weapons

Speeches first – rhetoric as a tool of policy.

4. new social behaviours and networks; increased access to information; transformed daily life

The third is a change in how people relate.

5. political; cultural; economic

8.4's Sun Belt is the earlier stage.

6. lengthy; controversial

Both belong in an answer.

7. 5.12, 7.15 and 8.15

Rank against a stated criterion.

8. the element of choice

The organising principle went with the rival.

9. remained popular with voters

A democratic obstacle, not merely an institutional one.

10. new U.S. military and peacekeeping interventions

The end of a rivalry did not reduce military involvement.
