Questions in this set

- 2023 Set 2 Q3

Reading the mark scheme

- B1 a mark that stands on its own – the point is either made or not.
- M1 a method mark: the right approach, even if the number is wrong.
- A1 an answer mark, and it usually needs its M mark first.
- C1 a working mark on the way to the answer.
- // separates answers the examiner accepts equally.
- ecf = error carried forward: a later part is marked on your own earlier answer.
- owtte = “or words to that effect” – the wording need not match.

Question 3

2023 Set 2 ■ Q3

Respond to parts a, b, and c.

- (a) Briefly describe one way in which religion influenced European migration to the Americas from 1500 to 1700.
- (b) Briefly explain one similarity in how religion influenced the development of two colonies in North America from 1600 to 1700.
- (c) Briefly explain one difference in how religion influenced the development of two colonies in North America from 1600 to 1700.

Solution 3

(a) Mark scheme

- Briefly describe one way in which religion influenced European migration to the Americas from 1500 to 1700. (1 point) — accept any: British migrants sought religious freedom in the American colonies.; Spanish Christians desired to spread their religion in the Americas.; Persecution in England against Puritans motivated them to come for religious freedom.; Religious rivalry between Protestant and Catholic countries contributed to frequent warfare in Europe, which encouraged migration to American colonies.; French Catholic missionaries migrated to North America to found settlements that incorporated Native Americans.; English missionaries migrated to North America and formed praying towns with Native American converts to Christianity.

Solution 3

(b) Mark scheme

- Briefly explain one similarity in how religion influenced the development of two colonies in North America from 1600 to 1700. (1 point) — accept any: One of the motivations for Europeans to establish and expand colonies on the East Coast and in the Southwest was to spread Christianity.; Puritans developed strict rules about behavior because of their religious beliefs, leading to more social uniformity in Massachusetts and Connecticut.; The colonies of the southern Atlantic coast and the British West Indies included large numbers of enslaved Africans who developed their own forms of religious autonomy that shaped the culture of both societies.; Catholics in Maryland and Protestants in Virginia resulted in the British Colonies being majority Christian.; Both New France and New Spain discouraged

Solution 3

non-Catholic migration and maintained relative Catholic religious uniformity. Examples that earn this point might include the following, if appropriate elaboration is provided:; Colonies established with a majority Anglican (Church of England) population; Colonies established by people seeking religious freedom; Colonies founded with the idea of religious toleration and diversity

Solution 3

(c) Mark scheme

- Briefly explain one difference in how religion influenced the development of two colonies in North America from 1600 to 1700. (1 point) — accept any: Puritans created more religiously devout colonies in the North, while Southern colonies had lower church membership.; The religious diversity of the middle colonies led to more tolerance than in Puritan- dominated New England.; While Virginia was settled by mostly Protestants, toleration in Maryland allowed for settlement by diverse religious groups such as Catholics and others.; Whereas Puritan mistreatment of Native Americans in Massachusetts resulted in conflict in the seventeenth century, Pennsylvania avoided conflict with Native Americans until the mid-eighteenth century, largely due to the pacifist influence of Quakers.;

Solution 3

Massachusetts's Puritanism led it to develop a society less tolerant of other religious views, while Pennsylvania's Quaker influence made it more open and inclusive.; Puritanism in Massachusetts and other strains of radical Protestantism inspired, in some areas of life, egalitarianism, whereas the predominance of high church Anglicanism in colonies like Virginia reinforced social hierarchy.; Religion in New England and the Middle colonies had a significant influence on the motivation for colonial foundation; however, religion had less influence compared to economic factors in Southern colonies. Examples that earn this point might include the following, if appropriate elaboration is provided:; Catholic settlements in New Spain compared to Puritan settlements in Massachusetts Bay
