Consequences of Industrialization

AP World History: Modern · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
ideologies	Nationalism and liberalism were new ideologies in the 1800s. 1800s imperialism /ɪmˈpɪərɪəlɪzəm/	Imperialism is one country ruling others.
settler colonies /ˈsetlə ˈkɒləniz/	Settler colonies like Australia had many European settlers.
resistance /rɪˈzɪstəns/	Colonised peoples showed resistance.
industrialisation	Japan's industrialisation was very fast.
economic imperialism /ˌiːkəˈnɒmɪk ɪmˈpɪərɪəlɪzəm/	Economic imperialism is control of a country through trade and money, not soldiers.
migration /maɪˈgreɪʃn/	Migration moves workers from one country to another.
justifications	Empires gave justifications for taking land, such as "spreading civilisation". " " civilising mission /ˈsɪvəlaɪzɪŋ ˈmɪʃn/	Europeans claimed a civilising mission to justify empire.
missionary	A missionary travels to spread a religion.
Social Darwinism /ˈsəʊʃl ˈdɑːwɪnɪzəm/	Social Darwinism wrongly used evolution to justify empire.
nationalism /ˈnæʃənəlɪzəm/	Nationalism is strong pride in one's nation.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
warfare and diplomacy /ˈwɔːfeə ænd dɪˈpləʊməsi/	Empires grew through warfare and diplomacy.
protectorates	Egypt and other protectorates kept their own rulers, but Britain made the key decisions.
partition /pɑːˈtɪʃn/	The partition of Africa split it among Europeans.
displacement /dɪˈspleɪsmənt/	Colonisation caused the displacement of local people.
Indigenous /ɪnˈdɪdʒənəs/	Indigenous peoples lost their land.
contiguous	Russia expanded into contiguous lands next to it.
direct resistance /daɪˈrekt rɪˈzɪstəns/	Direct resistance included armed revolts against colonial rule.
rebellion /rɪˈbeliən/	The Indian rebellion of 1857 was put down. 1857 creation of new states /kriːˈeɪʃn ɒv njuː steɪts/	Resistance to empires sometimes led to the creation of new states.
religious and cultural movements /rɪˈlɪdʒəs ænd ˈkʌltʃərəl ˈmuːvmənts/	Some people resisted empires through religious and cultural movements, such as the Ghost Dance.
Samory Touré	Samory Touré fought against French rule in West Africa.
Yaa Asantewaa War /jɑː əˈsæntjuːɑː wɔː/	The Yaa Asantewaa War was fought against the British in Ghana.
sovereignty /ˈsɒvərɪnti/	The sovereignty of a state is its right to rule itself.

Word	Example
Sokoto Caliphate /səˈkəʊtəʊ ˈkælɪfeɪt/	The Sokoto Caliphate was a large state in West Africa.
atrocities	Belgian officials committed atrocities against workers in the Congo.
raw materials /rɔː məˈtɪərɪəlz/	Wood and cotton are raw materials.
food supplies /fuːd səˈplaɪz/	Colonies sent food supplies to Europe.
cash crops /kæʃ krɒps/	Cash crops like cotton are grown to sell.
extractive industries /ekˈstræktɪv ˈɪndʌstriz/	Extractive industries dig up metals and oil.
commodities	Rubber and cotton were valuable commodities in the 1800s. 1800s refrigerated shipping	Refrigerated shipping carried meat across oceans.
investment /ɪnˈvestmənt/	Buying new machines for a factory is investment.
loans /ləʊnz/	Banks give loans that must be paid back with interest.
disproportionate power /ˌdɪsprəˈpɔːʃənət ˈpaʊə/	Industrial countries had disproportionate power over others.
steamships /ˈstiːmʃɪps/	Steamships crossed oceans faster.
railways	Railways carried raw materials from mines to ports.
temporary or seasonal /ˈtemprəri ɔː ˈsiːzənl/	Some migration was temporary or seasonal.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
coerced and semi-coerced labour /ˌkəʊˈɜːst ænd ˈsemi ˌkəʊˈɜːst ˈleɪbə/	Empires used coerced and semi-coerced labour.
enslavement	Enslavement ended in most places by 1900. 1900
indentured servitude /ˌɪnˈdentʃəd ˈsɜːvɪtjuːd/	Indentured servitude made workers serve for several years.
convict labour	Britain sent prisoners to Australia as convict labour.
ethnic enclaves /ˈeθnɪk ˈeŋkleɪvz/	Immigrants lived in ethnic enclaves like Chinatown. Chinatown exclusion	The poem shows the pain of exclusion from a group.
immigrants	Many immigrants moved to the USA to find work. USA