Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

- the democracy of the United States; the authoritarian communist Soviet Union

2.2

- ideological conflict; a power struggle between capitalism and communism

2.3

(a)

- the Non-Aligned Movement, which opposed and promoted alternatives to the existing economic, political and social orders

(b)

- the conflict was global rather than confined to the two states or to Europe

3.1 B

- the CED's own characterisation

3.2 B

- alternatives to the existing orders

3.3

(a)

- the Non-Aligned Movement and other alternatives

(b)

- many states declined both blocs, so a two-sided account misdescribes the choices actually available
