Work through these after you have tried the questions yourself.

2.1 it marked a break with existing Christian traditions; both reformations contributed to the growth of Christianity.

2.2 it intensified an existing split rather than creating one.

2.3 interactions between Hinduism and Islam in South Asia.

2.4 settling it would now require a state to concede territory or authority, so the doctrinal question is no longer the only thing at stake.

2.5 that the split already existed. \
