S.1-4 · Preliminary speaking: description, decision and discussion

A2 Key and B1 Preliminary (KET, PET) · Cambridge English · B1 Preliminary (PET) · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
long turn /lɒŋ tɜːn/	In the long turn, you talk alone about a photo for one minute.
collaborative task /kəˈlæbrətɪv tæsk/	In the collaborative task, you and your partner discuss ideas together.
decision /dɪˈsɪʒn/	At the end, you and your partner make a decision.
meal /miːl/	Breakfast is my favourite meal.
appetiser /ˈæpɪtaɪzə/	We ordered soup as an appetiser.
solo /ˈsəʊləʊ/	She sang a solo in the concert.
recipe /ˈresɪpiː/	Follow the recipe to make the cake.
speculate /ˈspekjʊleɪt/	When you are not sure, you can speculate: "Maybe it was because…" "Maybe it was because…"
inventory /ˈɪnvəntri/	Make an inventory of the things in the room.
mutual /ˈmjuːtʃuːəl/	The two friends share a mutual respect.
steamrolling /ˈstiːmrəʊlɪŋ/	Avoid steamrolling: let your partner speak too.
compromise /ˈkɒmprəmaɪz/	Both sides gave up something to reach a compromise.

Word	Example
all-purpose template	An all-purpose template sounds memorised and does not fit every photo.
edible /ˈedɪbl/	These berries are edible: you can eat them.
Interactive Communication	Interactive Communication marks how well you talk with your partner.