Imperatives and question words

English A1 · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
imperative /ɪm'perətɪv/	"Sit down!" is an imperative. "Sit down!"
question words /'kwestʃn wɜ:dz/	"Who", "where" and "why" are question words. "Who"、"where" "why" information /ˌɪnfə'meɪʃn/	I need some information about the bus.
Stand up (zhàn qǐlái) /stænd ʌp/	Stand up (zhàn qǐlái), please.
aspirational /ˌæspə'reɪʃənl/	"I want to be a doctor" is an aspirational sentence. "I want to be a doctor" reason /'ri:zn/	"Why?" asks for a reason. "Why?"
What do you like? (nǐ xǐhuan shénme)	"What do you like? (nǐ xǐhuan shénme)" "I like music." " "" " shénme (what) /'ʃeɪnmɪ/	Chinese shénme (what) is "what". "what"
nǎr (where)	Chinese nǎr (where) is "where". "where"
shéi (who) /'ʃeɪi/	Chinese shéi (who) is "who". "who"
stapler /'steɪplə/	Can I use your stapler?
grammatical /grə'mætɪkl/	"She go" is not grammatical. Say "she goes". "She go" "she goes"

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn