Modal verbs

English A2 · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
modal verbs /ˈməʊdl vɜːbz/	“Can”, “should” and “must” are modal verbs. “Can”、“should” “must”
mood /muːd/	“Close the door!” is in the imperative mood. “Close the door!”
remote controls /rɪˈməʊt kənˈtrəʊlz/	Where are the remote controls for the TV?
You should drink more water (nǐ yīnggāi...)	You should drink more water (nǐ yīnggāi...).
advice /ədˈvaɪs/	Can you give me some advice?
politeness /pəˈlaɪtnəs/	“Please” shows politeness. “Please”
forbidden /fəˈbɪdn/	Smoking is forbidden here.
not necessary /nɒt ˈnesɪsəri/	“You don’t have to come” means it is not necessary. “You don’t have to come”
prison /ˈprɪzn/	The thief went to prison.
lab /læb/	We do experiments in the science lab.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn