Past modals

English B2 · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
past modals /pæst ˈməʊdlz/	“Should have” and “could have” are past modals. “Should have” “could have”
deduction /dɪˈdʌkʃn/	The detective made a deduction from the footprints.
detective /dɪˈtektɪv/	The detective solved the case.
You should have revised (nǐ běnlái...)	You should have revised (nǐ běnlái...) for the test.
He must have missed the bus (tā yīdìng...)	He must have missed the bus (tā yīdìng...).
the běnlái...de structure	The běnlái...de structure often matches “should have”: I should have come. “should have”

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn