GAC023 Collaborative Investigation and Research Reporting

GAC Science · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
collaborative investigation /kə'læbrətɪv ɪnˌvestɪ'geɪʃn/	We each have a role in our collaborative investigation.
sampling method /'sæmplɪŋ 'meθəd/	Describe the sampling method you used.
repeats /rɪ'pi:ts/	Take three repeats with fresh paper each time.
supplied data /sə'plaɪd 'deɪtə/	Calculate the mean from the supplied data.
percentage points /pə'sentɪdʒ pɔɪnts/	A rise from 30% to 35% is five percentage points. 30% 35% conclusion /kən'klu:ʒn/	In your conclusion, sum up your main points. physical feature /'fɪzɪkl 'fi:tʃə/	The slope of the bank is a physical feature.
chemical feature /'kemɪkl 'fi:tʃə/	The salt content is a chemical feature of the water.
biological feature /ˌbaɪə'lɒdʒɪkl 'fi:tʃə/	The plants by the pond are a biological feature.
secondary source /'sekəndəri sɔ:s/	A news article about the event is a secondary source.
citation /saɪ'teɪʃn/	Add a citation next to the fact from the report.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn