2.1 A and D. Candid and forthright both express openness about uncertainty. Evasive reverses the meaning. Ornate describes style; repetitive describes recurrence; hostile adds an unsupported attitude. The sentence praises direct acknowledgement, not certainty about every detail.

3.1 B and D. Both make operation readily understandable in this context, supported by unaided new users. Cumbersome and unwieldy form a tempting negative pair but conflict with the evidence and contrast. Delicate concerns fragility or care, and novel concerns newness; neither matches ease of operation. Equivalent completed meanings matter more than choosing a dictionary synonym pair in isolation.

Local review checklist: follow every response instruction; support the answer with the stated evidence; explain rejected alternatives or an opposing view; check scope, restrictions and clarity. For writing, this is a formative checklist, not an official rubric score.
