Describing & degree

HSK 3

Ways to describe people and things, and to say how much. Some patterns make an adjective stronger (极了, 多 …… 啊, 这么), some soften it (比较) or make it vivid (doubled adjectives), some join two qualities (又 …… 又 ……) and two show change (越来越, 越 …… 越 ……). The particles 的 and 地 attach descriptions to nouns and verbs.

At a glance

How much? Degree

- 1. Adjective + 极了 – extremely: 这个菜好吃极了!
- 2. 这么 / 那么 + Adjective – so …: 今天怎么这么热!
- 3. 多 + Adjective + 啊! – how …!: 这儿的风景多美啊!
- 4. Subject + 比较 + Adjective – fairly, rather: 工作比较忙，不过同事都很好。

Describing nouns and actions

- 5. Doubling adjectives – AA / AABB: 她有一双大大的眼睛。
- 6. Adjective + 的 + Noun – describing a noun: 我的是那个红色的大包。
- 7. Adjective + 地 + Verb – making an adverb: 奶奶慢慢地走过马路。

Two qualities and change

- 8. 又 … 又 … – both … and …: 这件衣服又便宜又好看。
- 9. 越来越 – more and more: 我的家乡越来越漂亮了。
- 10. 越 … 越 … – the more …, the more …: 雨越下越大。

1. Adjective + 极了 (extremely)

Form: subject + adjective + 极了

- 这个菜好吃极了! Zhège cài hǎochī jí le! – This dish is absolutely delicious!
- 听到这个消息，我高兴极了。 Tīngdào zhège xiāoxi, wǒ gāoxìng jí le. – I was overjoyed to hear the news.
- 我喜欢极了。 Wǒ xǐhuan jí le. – I absolutely love it.
- A: 外面冷吗? B: 冷极了! – "Is it cold outside?" "Freezing!"

How it works. 极了 jí le pushes an adjective to its top degree: "extremely", "absolutely". It closes the clause, after the adjective. It works with feelings (高兴, 累) and a few feeling verbs (喜欢).

很 + adjective	非常 + adjective	adjective + 极了
neutral description	strong; speech and writing	spoken, exclamatory reaction
天气很好	天气非常好	天气好极了!

Watch out

- 极了 already gives the degree, so no 很 or 非常: wrong: 很好极了 → 好极了.
- It goes after the adjective: wrong: 极了冷 → 冷极了.

2. 这么 / 那么 + Adjective (so ...)

Form: 这么 / 那么 + adjective

- 今天怎么这么热！ Jīntiān zěnme zhème rè! – How come it's so hot today!
- 这双鞋这么便宜！ Zhè shuāng xié zhème piányi! – These shoes are so cheap!
- 那儿的冬天那么冷，你怎么受得了？ – The winters there are so cold; how do you stand it?
- 我没有他那么高。 Wǒ méiyǒu tā nàme gāo. – I'm not as tall as him.

How it works. Both mean "so …" and stand directly before the adjective, in the place of 很.

这么 zhème	那么 *nàme
here and now, what you can see or feel	over there, earlier, or already mentioned
你的箱子怎么这么重?	那儿的山那么漂亮

They often come with 怎么 (surprise: 怎么这么贵) and with 没有 comparisons (我没有他那么高).

Watch out

- One degree word only: wrong: 这么很热 → 这么热.
- Before the adjective: wrong: 远那么 → 那么远.

怎么这么 + adjective: surprise

3. 多 + Adjective + 啊! (how ...!)

Form: 多 + adjective + 啊!

- 这儿的风景多美啊! Zhèr de fēngjǐng duō měi a! – How beautiful the view is here!
- 你的中文说得多好啊! Nǐ de Zhōngwén shuō de duō hǎo a! – How well you speak Chinese!
- 今天多热啊! – How hot it is today!

How it works. 多 …… 啊! is an exclamation, "How … !". 多 goes before a bare adjective and 啊 closes the sentence. It sounds warm and admiring.

多 + adjective + 啊!	太 + adjective + 了!	多 + adjective?
admiring exclamation	strong reaction, often "too"	a question about amount
多美啊!	太贵了!	多远? How far?

Watch out

- No 很 inside: wrong: 多很漂亮啊 → 多漂亮啊.
- Keep 啊 and "! ". Without them, 这个公园多大? asks "How big is the park?"

多 + adjective + 啊: how ...!

4. Subject + 比较 + Adjective (fairly, rather)

Form: subject + 比较 + adjective · 比较 + verb + object (compare)

- 工作比较忙，不过同事都很好。 Gōngzuò bǐjiào máng, búguò tóngshì dōu hěn hǎo. – Work is fairly busy, but my colleagues are nice.
- 比较远，我们打车吧。 Bǐjiào yuǎn, wǒmen dǎ chē ba. – It's rather far; let's take a taxi.
- 我比较喜欢喝茶。 – I prefer tea.
- 我们比较一下这两个手机。 – Let's compare these two phones.

How it works. Before an adjective, 比较 bǐjiào means "fairly, rather". It takes the place of 很 and gives a moderate, polite answer; nothing else is being compared. Before 喜欢 it means "prefer".

With an object, 比较 is the verb "to compare". Tell the two apart by position.

Watch out

- 比较 never goes inside an A 比 B comparison: wrong: 他比我比较高 → 他比我高.
- Do not stack degree words: wrong: 很比较忙 → 比较忙.

5. Doubling adjectives (AA / AABB)

Form: AA(的) · AABB(的 / 地)

- 她有一双大大的眼睛。 Tā yǒu yì shuāng dàdà de yǎnjing. – She has big, big eyes.
- 房间干干净净的。 Fángjiān gāngānjìngjìng de. – The room is spotless.
- 孩子们高高兴兴地回家了。 – The children went home happily.

How it works. Doubling an adjective makes a description vivid, and adds degree.

Adjective	Doubled	Example
大, 红, 慢 (one syllable)	AA	大大的眼睛, 红红的苹果, 慢慢地走
干净, 高兴, 清楚 (AB)	AABB	干干净净, 高高兴兴, 清清楚楚

Before a noun add 的; before a verb add 地. In AA forms, the second syllable is often said lightly.

Watch out

- Doubling already adds degree, so no 很: wrong: 很大大的眼睛 → 大大的眼睛.
- A two-syllable adjective doubles each syllable: wrong: 干净干净 → 干干净净.
- Doubled forms describe; they are not negated: wrong: 不干干净净 → 不干净.

6. Adjective + 的 + Noun (describing a noun)

Form: adjective + 的 + noun · adjective + 的 (the … one)

- 我的是那个红色的大包。 Wǒ de shì nàge hóngsè de dà bāo. – Mine is that big red bag.
- 他是我很好的朋友。 Tā shì wǒ hěn hǎo de péngyou. – He is a very good friend of mine.
- 这是一本很有意思的书。 – This is a very interesting book.
- 大的还是小的? — 我要红的。 – The big one or the small one? – I want the red one.

How it works. In Chinese the description always comes before the noun, and 的 links them.

Needs 的	Usually no 的
很 + adjective: 很好的朋友	common one-syllable pairs: 好人, 新车
two syllables: 干净的房间	大城市, 红茶

When the noun is clear, adjective + 的 stands alone: 我要新的，不要旧的.

Watch out

- Keep 的 after 很 + adjective: wrong: 很好朋友 → 很好的朋友.
- wrong: 衣服漂亮的 → 漂亮的衣服 (the description goes first).

Describer + 的 can stand for the thing

7. Adjective + 地 + Verb (making an adverb)

Form: subject + adjective + 地 + verb

- 奶奶慢慢地走过马路。 Nǎinai mànmàn de zǒuguò mǎlù. – Grandma walks slowly across the road.
- 她安静地看书。 Tā ānjìng de kàn shū. – She reads quietly.
- 他小心地打开盒子。 – He opened the box carefully.

How it works. 地 de turns a description into the way an action is done, like English "-ly". The description comes before the verb. Doubled adjectives (高高兴兴地) and short phrases (很快地, 非常认真地) work too.

Three particles called de.

的	地	得
before a noun	before a verb	after a verb
认真的学生	认真地学习	学得很认真
a serious student	studies seriously	studies seriously (comment)

Watch out

- wrong: 他学习认真地 → 他认真地学习 or 他学得很认真.
- Write 地 before a verb, not 的: wrong: 高兴的说 → 高兴地说.

Adjective + 地 + verb: how it was done

8. 又 … 又 … (both … and …)

Form: subject + 又 + A + 又 + B

- 这件衣服又便宜又好看。 Zhè jiàn yīfu yòu piányi yòu hǎokàn. – This jacket is both cheap and good-looking.
- 她的房间又大又干净。 Tā de fángjiān yòu dà yòu gānjìng. – Her room is big and clean.
- 孩子们又唱又跳。 Háizimen yòu chàng yòu tiào. – The children sang and danced.
- 我又累又饿。 – I'm tired and hungry.

How it works. 又 …… 又 …… says two qualities or actions are true at the same time. Each 又 goes straight before its own adjective or verb. The two point the same way: both good (又快又好) or both bad (又累又饿).

Compare. 很便宜，也很好看 lists two facts one after the other; 又便宜又好看 presents them together as one picture.

Watch out

- 和 cannot join two adjectives after the subject: wrong: 便宜和好看 → 又便宜又好看.
- No 很 inside the pattern: wrong: 又很高又很大 → 又高又大.
- 又便宜又难看 sounds odd unless you are joking: the qualities clash.

9. 越来越 (more and more)

Form: subject + 越来越 + adjective / feeling verb (+ 了)

- 我的家乡越来越漂亮了。 Wǒ de jiāxiāng yuèláiyuè piàoliang le. – My hometown is getting more and more beautiful.
- 天气越来越冷了。 Tiānqì yuèláiyuè lěng le. – It's getting colder and colder.
- 我越来越喜欢这个城市了。 – I like this city more and more.
- 他越来越会做饭了。 – He's getting better and better at cooking.

How it works. 越来越 yuèláiyuè says a quality keeps growing over time. It goes after the subject, before a bare adjective or a feeling verb (喜欢, 想) or ability verb (会). The final 了 is common because the sentence reports a change.

Watch out

- No degree word after it: wrong: 越来越很好 → 越来越好.
- The subject comes first: wrong: 越来越他高 → 他越来越高.
- 越来越 is change over time. To link two things ("the more A, the more B"), use 越 A 越 B.

10. 越 … 越 … (the more …, the more …)

Form: 越 + A + 越 + B · subject_1 越 A, subject_2 越 B

- 雨越下越大。 Yǔ yuè xià yuè dà. – The rain is getting heavier and heavier.
- 你越练习，说得越好。 Nǐ yuè liànxí, shuō de yuè hǎo. – The more you practise, the better you speak.
- 天越冷，人越少。 Tiān yuè lěng, rén yuè shǎo. – The colder it gets, the fewer people there are.
- 我越想越生气。 – The more I think about it, the angrier I get.

How it works. 越 A 越 B means "the more A, the more B": B grows as A increases. Each 越 goes before a verb or adjective. With one subject the pattern is short (他越说越快); with two, each subject comes before its own 越.

越来越	越 A 越 B
growth over time alone	growth tied to something else
天气越来越冷	越想越生气

Watch out

- No 很 after 越: wrong: 越说越很快 → 越说越快.
- wrong: 越天冷，越人少 → 天越冷，人越少.

越 A 越 B: the more A, the more B

Answers and explanations

Mark your work, then correct each mistake in your own words.

■ 1. Adjective + 极了 (extremely)

1. 极了

好看极了 = "absolutely brilliant". 极了 follows the adjective directly.

2. D. 天气好极了。

极了 follows a bare adjective. 很 and 非常 would add a second degree word, and 极了 never comes first.

3. True.

Adj + 极了 is typical of spoken reactions. In a formal report 非常冷 would be more usual.

4. 听到这个消息，我高兴极了。

Time clause first, then Subject + Adjective + 极了: 听到这个消息，我高兴极了。

5. C. 这里的东西便宜极了！

极了 = extremely, a happy reaction. 有点 sounds like a complaint, and 很 cannot stand before 极了.

6. Model answer: 这个菜好吃极了！

Check your answer:

- No 很 or 非常 in front: say 好极了, not 很好极了, because 极了 already carries the degree.
- 极了 never comes before the adjective: 冷极了, not 极了冷.

■ 2. 这么 / 那么 + Adjective (so ...)

7. 这么

The suitcase is right here, so 这么 + 重 = "so heavy".

8. D. 那儿的山那么漂亮。

那么 + Adj, with no extra 很; 那么 suits a distant place.

9. (1) B: 这个字应该这么写。= This character should be written like this.; (2) A: 你别那么说！ = Don't say it like that!; (3) C: 这么多人！ = So many people!

这么 / 那么 before a verb = this way / that way; 这么多 = so many.

10. False.

这么 already supplies the degree, so 很 is left out: 这么热.

11. 我没有他那么高。

A + 没有 + B + 那么 + Adj.

12. Model answer: 今天怎么这么热！

Check your answer:

- Do not add 很 as well: 这么热, not 这么很热, since 这么 already gives the degree.
- Place 这么 or 那么 before the adjective, not after it: 那么远, not 远那么.

■ 3. 多 + Adjective + 啊! (how ...!)

13. 多

多 + Adj + 啊 = "How … !"

14. A. 这个公园多大?

Without 啊 and the exclamation mark, 多大? asks "How big is it?"

15. 你的中文说得多好啊!

Verb + 得 + 多 + Adj + 啊.

16. False.

多 already gives the degree, so the adjective stays bare: 多漂亮啊!

17. (1) B: 这个箱子多重? = How heavy is this suitcase?; (2) C: 这个箱子多重啊! = This suitcase is so heavy!; (3) A: 你家离学校多远? = How far is your home from school?

With 啊 and ! it is an exclamation; with ? it asks how much.

18. Model answer: 这儿的风景多美啊!

Check your answer:

- No 很 inside: 多美啊, not 多很美啊; 多 already carries the degree.
- Keep 啊 and the exclamation mark. Without them, 多 + Adj often becomes a question: 多远? – "How far is it?"

■ 4. Subject + 比较 + Adjective (fairly, rather)

19. 比较

比较 + Adj = fairly cold.

20. 比较远，我们打车吧。

比较 + Adj, then the suggestion.

21. 房间比较小，不过很干净。

比较 + a plain fact, then 不过 + the good side.

22. A. 他比我高。

A 比 B + Adj. The adverb 比较 does not go inside a 比 comparison.

23. (1) C: 这家饭馆比较贵。= This restaurant is rather expensive.; (2) A: 我们比较一下价格。= Let's compare the prices.; (3) B: 我比较喜欢夏天。= I prefer summer.

Before an adjective or a liking verb, 比较 means "rather"; with an object such as 价格 it is the verb "compare".

24. Model answer: 工作比较忙，不过同事都很好。

Check your answer:

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

- In a 比 comparison, 比较 cannot appear before the adjective: 他比我高, not 他比我比较高.
- Do not stack it with 很: 比较忙, not 很比较忙 or 比较很忙.

■ 5. Doubling adjectives (AA / AABB)

25. (1) D: 高兴 = 高高兴兴; (2) B: 干净 = 干干净净; (3) C: 慢 = 慢慢; (4) A: 漂亮 = 漂漂亮亮

One syllable gives AA; two syllables give AABB.

26. False.

Adjectives double as AABB: 干干净净. ABAB is for verbs (休息休息).

27. 清清楚楚

A two-syllable adjective AB doubles as AABB, so 清楚 becomes 清清楚楚.

28. A. 她的手冷冷的。

At the end of the sentence a doubled adjective takes 的: 冷冷的.

29. 请慢慢说。

慢慢 + verb, a friendly request.

30. D. 我们出去高兴高兴吧!

Used as a verb ("do it a bit"), 高兴 doubles as ABAB: 高兴高兴.

31. A. 红红的苹果

AA + 的 + noun. Doubling already means "very", so no 很, and no 不.

32. Model answer: 她有一双大大的眼睛。

Check your answer:

- I can explain what doubling adds, rather than only naming it.
- No 很 or 不 in front of a doubled adjective.
- A doubled adjective before a noun or at the end has 的: 大大的眼睛, 脸红红的.

■ 6. Adjective + 的 + Noun (describing a noun)

33. 的

很 + Adj needs 的 before the noun.

34. 这是一本很有意思的书。

Number + measure word + description + 的 + noun.

35. 这是妈妈做的菜。

The whole description (妈妈做) comes before 的 + noun.

36. C. 很漂亮的衣服

Description + 的 + noun, and 很 + Adj keeps 的.

37. True.

When the noun is clear from context, Adj + 的 stands for "the … one".

38. Model answer: 我的是那个红色的大包。

1. 终于 (finally, at last)

Form: subject + 终于 + verb (+ 了)

- 火车终于来了! Huǒchē zhōngyú lái le! – The train has finally come!
- 他学了三年，终于考上了大学。 Tā xuéle sān nián, zhōngyú kǎoshàngle dàxué. – After three years of study, he finally got into university.
- 我终于找到了我的钥匙。 – I finally found my keys.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

- 他忙了一个月，终于病倒了。 – After a month of overwork, he finally fell ill.

How it works. 终于 zhōngyú means "at last": a result arrives after a long wait, effort or process. It goes after the subject, before the verb, and the sentence usually has 了 because the result has now happened. The result can be good or bad news.

终于	最后
a long wait reaches its end	the last step in an order
等了两个小时，电影终于开始了	我们先吃饭，最后去看电影

Watch out

- For "lastly" in a list of steps, use 最后, not 终于.
- In ordinary speech, 终于 goes after the subject: wrong: 终于他来了 → 他终于来了.

2. 先 … ，再 … (first …, then …)

Form: subject + 先 + verb$_1$， 再 + verb$_2$

- 你先放衣服，再按这个按钮。 Nǐ xiān fàng yīfu, zài àn zhège ànniǔ. – First put the clothes in, then press this button.
- 你先休息一下，再做作业。 Nǐ xiān xiūxi yíxià, zài zuò zuòyè. – Rest a bit first, then do your homework.
- 我们先买票，再进去。 – Let's buy tickets first, then go in.

How it works. 先 …… 再 …… gives the order of steps in plans, suggestions and instructions. Both are adverbs: each goes before its own verb, after the subject. It stresses that the second step waits for the first: 你先想好，再回答.

For a longer list, add 然后: 先洗手，然后做饭，再吃饭.

Still to come	Already happened
先 …… 再 ……	先 …… 然后 ……
我们先吃饭，再看电影。	我昨天先去了银行，然后去了超市。

Watch out

- 再 is for steps still to come. Past steps take 然后.
- 先 goes after the subject: wrong: 先我走 → 我先走.

3. 一边 … 一边 … (doing two things at once)

Form: subject + (一) 边 + verb$_1$ + (一) 边 + verb$_2$

- 爷爷一边喝茶一边看报纸。 Yéye yìbiān hē chá yìbiān kàn bàozhǐ. – Grandpa reads the paper while drinking tea.
- 我们边走边聊。 Wǒmen biān zǒu biān liáo. – We chatted as we walked.
- 他一边哭一边说。 – He spoke through his tears.

How it works. One person does two actions at the same moment. The subject comes once, before the first 一边, and each 一边 stands before its own verb. Use activities that can last: 听, 看, 走, 聊, 吃. With one-syllable verbs, 边 …… 边 …… is common.

一边 …… 一边 ……	又 …… 又 ……
two actions at the same moment	two qualities, or a lively scene
一边唱一边跳	又唱又跳, 又便宜又好看

Watch out

- Actions only, not roles or states: wrong: 一边是学生一边是老师.
- wrong: 一边他吃一边看 → 他一边吃一边看.

4. 一直 (all along, continuously)

Form: subject + 一直 + verb / adjective

- 今天一直在下雨。 Jīntiān yìzhí zài xià yǔ. – It's been raining non-stop all day.
- 我一直想去中国。 Wǒ yìzhí xiǎng qù Zhōngguó. – I've always wanted to go to China.
- 他一直住在上海。 – He has always lived in Shanghai.
- 一直往前走，就到了。 – Go straight ahead and you're there.

How it works. 一直 yìzhí means "without a break": an action or state continues over a whole period, often up to now. It goes before the verb or adjective and often combines with 在 or 很: 一直在等, 一直很忙. With 没 or 不 it means "the whole time … not": 他一直没来 (he still hasn't come). In directions, 一直 means "straight".

一直	总是 / 经常
one continuous stretch	the same thing again and again
一直在下雨	他经常去健身房

Watch out

- wrong: 他在工作一直 → 他一直在工作: 一直 goes before the verb.

5. Duration + 没 + Verb + 了 (how long you haven't …)

Form: subject + length of time + 没 + verb (+ object) + 了

- 我三天没吃肉了。 Wǒ sān tiān méi chī ròu le. – I haven't eaten meat for three days.
- 我们好久没见了！ Wǒmen hǎojiǔ méi jiàn le! – We haven't seen each other for ages!
- 他两个星期没来上课了。 – He hasn't come to class for two weeks.

How it works. To say how long something has not happened, the length of time comes before 没. The final 了 says the gap lasts up to now.

Did it for a time	Haven't done it for a time time after the verb	time before 没
我学了两年中文。	我两年没说中文了。
I studied Chinese for two years.	I haven't spoken Chinese for two years.

Watch out

- wrong: 没吃肉三天了 → 三天没吃肉了.
- Keep the final 了: 我一个星期没给家里打电话了.

6. 刚 vs 刚才 (just now: adverb vs time-word)

Form: subject + 刚 + verb · 刚才 (time word) + clause

- 我刚到家。 Wǒ gāng dào jiā. – I've just got home.
- 她刚才出去了。 Tā gāngcái chūqu le. – She went out a moment ago.
- 刚才有人给你打电话。 – Someone called you just now.
- 刚才很热，现在好多了。 – It was hot a moment ago; it's much better now.

How it works. The two words look alike but do different jobs.

刚 gāng	刚才 gāngcái
adverb: right before the verb	time word, like 昨天
cannot start the sentence	can start the sentence
"just": can stretch (刚来北京一个月)	only a few minutes ago usually no 了: 我刚到	了 as normal: 他刚才走了
actions only	also states and negatives: 刚才很忙

Watch out

- wrong: 刚我吃饭 → 我刚吃饭 or 刚才我吃饭了.
- wrong: 刚很热 → 刚才很热.

刚才: a moment ago (a time word)

7. 总是 (always – a habit)

Form: subject (+ time) + 总是 + verb

- 爸爸早上总是先喝一杯咖啡。 Bàba zǎoshang zǒngshì xiān hē yì bēi kāfēi. – Dad always has a coffee first thing.
- 她总是第一个到教室。 Tā zǒngshì dì yī ge dào jiàoshì. – She's always the first to class.
- 他周末总是去爬山。 – At weekends he always goes hiking.
- 这里的冬天总是很冷。 – Winters here are always cold.

How it works. 总是 zǒngshì reports a habit, something that happens every time. It goes before the verb, after the subject and time words.

总是	老是	一直
neutral habit	habit + complaint	one unbroken stretch
他总是七点起床	你老是迟到!	雨一直在下

"Never" is 从来不. 他从来不喝酒 (he never drinks); 总是不 is rarely right.

Watch out

- wrong: 他迟到总是 → 他总是迟到.

总是: always

8. 老是 (always – a complaint)

Form: subject + 老是 + verb (or 不 / 没 + verb)

- 你老是不洗碗！ Nǐ lǎoshì bù xǐ wǎn! – You never wash the dishes!
- 我的电脑老是出问题。 Wǒ de diànnǎo lǎoshì chū wèntí. – My computer keeps having problems.
- 我老是忘记带伞。 – I keep forgetting my umbrella.
- 他老是坐错车。 – He keeps getting on the wrong train.

How it works. 老是 lǎoshì means "always, keep on doing", with annoyance or worry. It sits in the same place as 总是, before the verb or before 不 / 没. It is spoken and emotional, so it doesn't suit a neutral report.

总是	老是
neutral fact about a habit	a complaint about a habit
他总是坐地铁上班。	他老是坐错车。

Watch out

- 老是 comes before 不: wrong: 你不老是听 → 你老是不听.
- A neutral report (a factory opens at eight every day) takes 总是.

9. 又 + Verb + 了 (again, in the past)

Form: subject (+ time) + 又 + verb + 了

- 他又迟到了。 Tā yòu chídào le. – He's late again.
- 昨天下雨，今天又下雨了。 Zuótiān xià yǔ, jīntiān yòu xià yǔ le. – It rained yesterday, and it's raining again today.
- 她又买了一双鞋。 – She bought another pair of shoes.
- 明天又是星期一了。 – Tomorrow is Monday again.

How it works. 又 yòu says the same thing has happened once more. It goes after the subject and any time word, before the verb, and 了 marks the repeat as done. It often carries a feeling: surprise, annoyance or amusement.

又 can also look ahead to a repeat that is certain to come round, such as a day of the week.

Watch out

- A repeat that has already happened takes 又: wrong: 他昨天再来了 → 他昨天又来了.
- A planned or requested repeat takes 再: 请再说一遍.

又 … 了: it happened again

10. 再 vs 又 (again: future vs past)

Form: 又 + verb + 了 (again, done) · 再 + verb (again, still to come)

- 我今年又去了长城，明年还想再去。 Wǒ jīnnián yòu qùle Chángchéng, míngnián hái xiǎng zài qù. – I went to the Great Wall again this year, and I want to go again next year.
- 请再说一遍。 Qǐng zài shuō yí biàn. – Please say it again.
- 欢迎你下次再来！ – Come again next time!
- 他上个星期又感冒了，医生说下个月再来检查。 – He caught a cold again last week; the doctor said to come back for a check next month.

How it works.

又 yòu	再 zài
a repeat that has happened	a repeat still to come 他又迟到了	明天再来
also a certain repeat: 明天又是周末了！	plans, requests, suggestions

再 can also mean "then, later": 我们明天再讨论吧. 还想再 shows a wish to repeat: 我还想再吃一碗.

Watch out

- wrong: 他昨天再来了 → 他昨天又来了.
- For a plan or request: wrong: 明天又来 → 明天再来.

又: again (done) · 再: again (still to come)

11. 几乎 (nearly, almost)

Form: 几乎 + verb / adjective / 每 / 所有 / 没

- 我几乎忘了今天有考试。 Wǒ jīhū wàngle jīntiān yǒu kǎoshì. – I almost forgot there was a test today.
- 他几乎每天都跑步。 Tā jīhū měi tiān dōu pǎobù. – He runs almost every day.
- 几乎所有的学生都来了。 – Almost all the students came.
- 我几乎没睡觉。 – I hardly slept at all.

How it works. 几乎 jīhū means "almost, nearly". Put it directly before the part that is "almost": 几乎每天, 几乎所有的, 几乎没有. With 没 or 不 it means "hardly": 他几乎不说话.

差不多 also means "almost" and is more common in everyday speech, especially with numbers and times: 差不多十点了.

Watch out

- With 都, 几乎 comes first: wrong: 我们都几乎去过 → 我们几乎都去过.
- 几乎 goes before the verb, not after it.

几乎: almost

12. 只 (only)

Form: subject + 只 + verb · 只有 + person / thing

- 我只要一碗面条。 Wǒ zhǐ yào yì wǎn miàntiáo. – I only want a bowl of noodles.
- 我只有十块钱。 Wǒ zhǐ yǒu shí kuài qián. – I only have ten yuan.
- 昨天我只睡了五个小时。 – Yesterday I only slept five hours.
- 只有她知道答案。 Zhǐyǒu tā zhīdào dá'àn. – Only she knows the answer.

How it works. 只 zhǐ ("only") goes before the verb, even when English puts "only" next to the object: 我只喝茶 (I only drink tea).

只 + verb	只有 + noun
limits the action or amount	limits the person or thing
我只会说一点儿中文	只有小王来了

Watch out

- 只 cannot stand before the subject: wrong: 只我去了 → 只有我去了.
- wrong: 我喝了只一杯 → 我只喝了一杯.

13. 才 + Number (only – a small amount)

Form: 才 + number (+ measure word) · 才 + verb + number

- 他才十岁，钢琴就弹得这么好！ Tā cái shí suì, gāngqín jiù tán de zhème hǎo! – He's only ten, and he plays the piano this well!
- 这个包才二十块！ Zhège bāo cái èrshí kuài! – This bag is only twenty yuan!
- 我才学了三个月中文。 – I've only studied Chinese for three months.
- 现在才七点，再睡一会儿吧。 – It's only seven; sleep a bit longer.

How it works. Before a number, 才 means "only": the speaker finds the amount small, the age young or the time early. With a verb, 才 goes before the verb: 我才喝了一杯.

才 + time	time + 才 + verb
“it’s only …”	“not until …”
现在才九点。	他九点才起床。

只 also means “only”, but it is neutral (我只有十块钱); 才 adds surprise (他才十岁!).

Watch out

- The position decides the meaning. Before the number: “only”. After the time: “not until”.

14. 有点 vs 一点 (a bit too… vs a little …er)

Form: 有点 (儿) + adjective · adjective + 一点 (儿)

- 这双鞋有点小，有大一点的吗? Zhè shuāng xié yǒudiǎn xiǎo, yǒu dà yìdiǎn de ma? – These shoes are a bit small; do you have a slightly bigger pair?
- 这个有点贵，能便宜一点吗? – It’s a bit expensive; could you make it a little cheaper?
- 你说得有点快，请说慢一点。 – You speak a bit fast; please speak a little more slowly.

How it works. A natural pattern is to complain with 有点, then ask for a change with 一点.

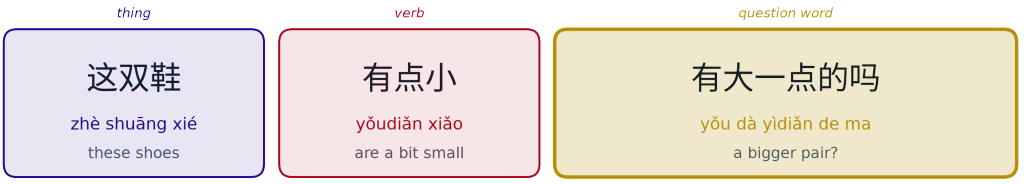

有点 + adjective	adjective + 一点
“a bit (too) …”: a complaint	“a little more …”: compare or request
有点贵, 有点累, 有点不舒服	便宜一点, 快一点, 大一点的

一点 before a noun means “a little of”: 一点水.

Watch out

- wrong: 贵有点 → 有点贵; wrong: 一点便宜 → 便宜一点.
- 有点 + a pleasant word sounds odd: wrong: 她有点漂亮 → 她很漂亮.

有点 complains; adjective + 一点 asks for a change

15. Time + 才 (not until – lateness)

Form: subject + time / event + 才 + verb

- 他十二点才回家。 Tā shí'èr diǎn cái huí jiā. – He didn't get home until twelve.
- 电影九点才开始。 Diànyǐng jiǔ diǎn cái kāishǐ. – The film didn't start until nine.
- 他吃了药才睡着。 – He only fell asleep after taking medicine.
- 我学了三年才敢说中文。 – I studied for three years before I dared to speak Chinese.

How it works. 才 cái after a time means "not until": the speaker finds it late, or the process long. The time (or the event that had to happen first) comes before 才, and 才 stands right before the verb. In this simple pattern for a late event, the sentence normally has no final 了.

The opposite is 就 for "early": 他六点就回家了. The same clock time can take 才 or 就, depending on what was expected.

Watch out

- Word order changes the meaning: 九点才起床 (didn't get up until nine) but 才九点 (it's only nine).

才: not until (later than expected)

16. 才 vs 就 (late vs early)

Form: time / effort + 就 + verb + 了 · time / effort + 才 + verb

- 小李八点半就到了，小王九点半才到。 Xiǎo Lǐ bā diǎn bàn jiù dào le, Xiǎo Wáng jiǔ diǎn bàn cái dào. – Li was there by 8.30; Wang didn't arrive until 9.30.
- 他看了一遍就懂了。 Tā kànle yí biàn jiù dǒng le. – He understood after reading it once.
- 我看了三遍才懂。 Wǒ kànle sān biàn cái dǒng. – I only understood after reading it three times.

How it works. Both words follow the time or effort and stand before the verb. They show how the speaker judges it.

就 jiù	才 *cái
earlier, sooner, easier than expected	later, slower, harder than expected past sentences usually end with 了	the simple late model has no final 了
他六点就起床了	他九点才起床

It depends on the expectation. A pupil who usually gets up at eight: 他七点就起床了. A farmer who usually gets up at five: 他七点才起床.

Watch out

- The time comes first: wrong: 就六点起床了 → 六点就起床了.

就: early · 才: late

小王九点半才到。 — Xiao Wang did not arrive until 9:30.

Verbs, ability & complements

HSK 3

Verbs that do more work. Some verbs make other people act (让, 叫, 请, 使) or give advice (应该). Some patterns say how long an action lasted (Verb + 了 + time). The largest group are complements: short words after the verb that say where the action goes (来/去), whether you can do it (得/不), whether it is finished (完/好/错) and whether it continues (下去).

At a glance

Making, letting and advising

- 1. 让 / 叫 / 请 / 使 – make / let / ask someone do: 妈妈不让我晚上出去。
- 2. 应该 / 该 – should, ought to: 你应该多带一点水。
- 3. 没办法 + Verb – no way to / can't: 商店都关门了，我没办法买蛋糕。

Seeming, feeling and judging

- 4. 看起来 – looks / seems: 这个蛋糕看起来很好吃。

Complements after the verb

Form: subject + 没办法 + verb · 没办法。(reply)

- 商店都关门了，我没办法买蛋糕。 Shāngdiàn dōu guān mén le, wǒ méi bànfǎ mǎi dàngāo. – The shops are all shut; there's no way I can buy a cake.
- 对不起，我没办法帮你。 – Sorry, there's no way I can help you.
- A: 下雨了，比赛取消了。 B: 没办法。 – "It's raining, the match is off." "Nothing we can do."
- 我一点儿办法都没有。 – I'm completely out of ideas.

How it works. 没办法 méi bànfǎ + verb means the situation stops you: "there's no way to …". On its own, it is a reply: "Oh well, nothing can be done."

没办法	不会	不能
the situation blocks you	you lack the skill	general "can't", not allowed
我没办法联系他	我不会游泳	这里不能抽烟

Watch out

- Keep 没: wrong: 不办法 → 没办法.

4. 看起来 (looks / seems)

Form: subject + 看起来 / 听起来 / 吃起来 / 用起来 + description

- 这个蛋糕看起来很好吃。 Zhège dàngāo kàn qǐlai hěn hǎochī. – This cake looks delicious.
- 这个主意听起来不错。 Zhège zhǔyi tīng qǐlai búcuò. – That idea sounds good.
- 这个菜吃起来有点辣。 – This dish tastes a bit spicy.
- 这个手机用起来很方便。 – This phone is easy to use.

How it works. Sense verb + 起来 gives an impression from that sense: 看 (looks), 听 (sounds), 吃 (tastes), 用 (is … to use). It goes before the description, which is usually 很 + adjective. It reports an impression, not a fact you have checked: a cake can look good and taste bad.

看起来 / 看上去	好像
from what you can see	a guess or a feeling, not from looks
她看上去很年轻	他好像生病了

Watch out

- Pick the right sense: a plan on the phone 听起来很有意思; it does not 看起来.

5. 难 + Verb (unpleasant to …)

Form: 难 + sense verb (unpleasant) · 难 + other verb (hard to)

- 这个汤太难喝了！ Zhège tāng tài nánhē le! – This soup tastes awful!
- 这个颜色很难看。 Zhège yánsè hěn nánkàn. – This colour is ugly.
- 这个字很难写。 – This character is hard to write.
- 他的问题很难回答。 – His question is hard to answer.

How it works. With a sense verb, 难 means “unpleasant to the senses”. These words work like adjectives (很难看, 太难听了), and each has an opposite with 好.

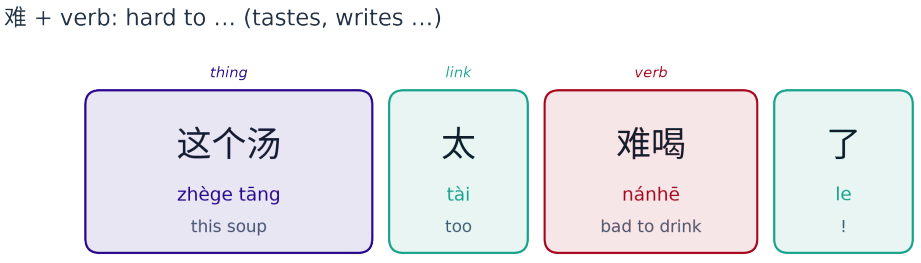

难 word	Meaning	Opposite
难吃 / 难喝	tastes bad (food / drink)	好吃 / 好喝
难看	ugly	好看
难听	sounds unpleasant	好听
难闻	smells bad	好闻

With most other verbs, 难 means "difficult to": 难写, 难回答. 难受 is a feeling: unwell or upset.

不好吃 is milder ("not tasty") than 难吃 ("awful").

Watch out

- 难吃 means it tastes bad, not that it is hard to eat; 难看 means ugly, not hard to see.

6. 很 + Verb (feeling verbs with 很)

Form: subject + 很 / 非常 + feeling verb (+ object)

- 我很喜欢吃中国菜。 Wǒ hěn xǐhuan chī Zhōngguó cài. – I really like Chinese food.
- 我很想家。 Wǒ hěn xiǎng jiā. – I miss home a lot.
- 我非常担心他。 – I'm extremely worried about him.
- 我们都很希望你能来。 – We all very much hope you can come.

How it works. Verbs of feeling and wanting take degree words, just like adjectives: 很喜欢, 很想, 很担心, 很希望, 很爱. The degree word goes right before the verb.

- 很想 + verb: really want to: 我很想去看看.
- 很会 + verb: be good at: 他很会做饭.

Watch out

- Ordinary action verbs do not take 很: wrong: 很吃, wrong: 很跑. Say 吃得很多, 跑得很快.
- wrong: 喜欢很这本书 → 很喜欢这本书.

很 / 非常 + feeling verb: how much

7. 经过 (after going through)

Form: 经过 + process, result · 经过 + place (pass through)

- 经过三年的努力，她终于赢了比赛。 Jīngguò sān nián de nǔlì, tā zhōngyú yíngle bǐsài. – After three years of hard work, she finally won the race.
- 经过检查，医生说没什么大问题。 – After the check-up, the doctor said it was nothing serious.
- 我每天经过这个公园。 Wǒ měi tiān jīngguò zhège gōngyuán. – I pass this park every day.
- 这趟车经过北京吗? – Does this train go through Beijing?

How it works. 经过 + a process (effort, study, discussion, a check) comes first; the result follows in the second clause, often with 终于. The process is usually a noun phrase: 经过一年的学习, 经过大家的讨论. As a plain verb, 经过 means "pass by, go through" a place.

经过	通过	以后
going through a process	the means used	simply "after" a time
经过多次试验	通过朋友，我找到了工作	下课以后

Watch out

- wrong: 经过下课 → 下课以后: a class ending is not a process.

经过 + effort, (终于) result

8. Verb + 了 + Duration (did for a length of time)

Form: verb + 了 + length of time (+ object) · verb + object + verb + 了 + length of time

- 我等了你一个小时！ Wǒ děngle nǐ yí ge xiǎoshí! – I waited for you for an hour!
- 我昨天睡了十个小时。 – I slept for ten hours yesterday.
- 他学了三年中文。 / 他学中文学了三年。 Tā xuéle sān nián Zhōngwén. – He studied Chinese for three years.

How it works. How long an action lasted comes after the verb, as in English. Verb + 了 + duration with no final 了 reports a period that is over: 我在北京住了两年 (I lived there for two years, then left).

Where does the object go?

Object	Pattern	Example
a noun	duration before it, or repeat the verb	学了三年中文 / 学中文学了三年
a person (你, 他)	before the duration	等了你一个小时

Watch out

- wrong: 我两年学了 → 我学了两年.
- wrong: 我学了中文两年 → 我学了两年中文.
- In the negative, the time moves to the front: 三天没吃肉了.

9. Verb + 了 + Duration + 了 (have been ...-ing)

Form: (已经) + verb + 了 + length of time (+ object) + 了

- 我等了你两个小时了！ Wǒ děngle nǐ liǎng ge xiǎoshí le! – I've been waiting for you for two hours!
- 他在这儿工作了十年了。 Tā zài zhèr gōngzuòle shí nián le. – He has worked here for ten years (and still does).
- 我已经等了一个小时了。 – I've already been waiting an hour.

- 你学中文学了多长时间了？ – How long have you been learning Chinese?

How it works. The final 了 says the period lasts up to now and may go on.

One 了: finished	Two 了: still going
我在这儿住了五年。	我在这儿住了五年了。
I lived here for five years.	I've lived here for five years.

已经 in front stresses how long it has been; it does not change the meaning.

Watch out

- The duration still follows the verb: wrong: 三年学了了 → 学了三年了.

10. Verb reduplication (do a bit / give it a try)

Form: VV · V 一 V · ABAB · V 了 V (done)

- 我可以试试这件衣服吗？ Wǒ kěyǐ shìshi zhè jiàn yīfu ma? – Could I try this jacket on?
- 让我看看。 Ràng wǒ kànkan. – Let me have a look.
- 我们讨论讨论这个问题吧。 – Let's talk this over a bit.
- 他看了看表，就走了。 – He glanced at his watch and left.

How it works. A doubled verb means "do it a little, give it a try". It sounds softer and friendlier: 你尝尝 is gentler than 你尝. The second syllable is said lightly.

Verb	Doubled	Done
one syllable: 看	看看 / 看一看	看了看
two syllables: 休息	休息休息	休息了一下

Watch out

- Verbs double as ABAB, adjectives as AABB: wrong: 休休息息 → 休息休息.
- Doubling already means "a bit": wrong: 看看一会儿 → 看看 or 看一会儿.

A doubled verb: try a little

11. Result complements 完 / 好 / 错 / 见 / 懂 / 到 (how it turned out)

Form: verb + 好 / 完 / 错 (+ 了) · 没 + verb + result

- 作业我做完了！ Zuòyè wǒ zuòwán le! – I've finished my homework!
- 饭做好了，快来吃吧！ Fàn zuòhǎo le, kuài lái chī ba! – Dinner's ready, come and eat!
- 对不起，我打错电话了。 – Sorry, I dialled the wrong number.
- 这本书我还没看完。 – I haven't finished reading this book yet.

How it works. A result word after the verb tells how the action ended. 了 normally follows the pair.

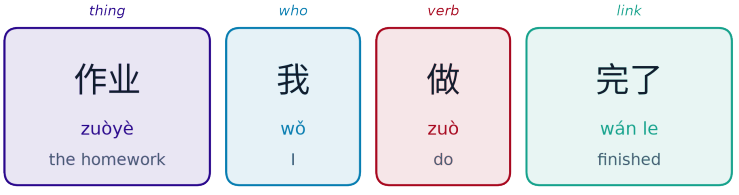

Result	Meaning	Example
完	finished, nothing left	吃完了
好	done properly, ready	准备好了吗?
错	done wrongly	写错了, 看错了

做完 says the job is over (maybe badly); 做好 says it is done well and ready.

Watch out

- Negate with 没 and drop 了: wrong: 我不做完了 → 我还没做完.
- Nothing comes between the verb and its result: wrong: 做作业完 → 做完作业.

Verb + 完 / 好: the result is reached

12. Direction complement 来 / 去 (toward / away)

Form: verb + 来 / 去 · verb + place + 来 / 去

- 请进来！ Qǐng jìnlai! – Please come in!
- 他出去了。 Tā chūqu le. – He's gone out.
- 快进教室来！ – Come into the classroom, quick!
- 请把书拿来。 – Please bring the book here.

How it works. 来 means movement towards the speaker; 去 means away from the speaker. They combine with direction verbs.

Towards the speaker	Away from the speaker
进来, 出来, 上来, 下来	进去, 出去, 上去, 下去
回来, 过来	回去, 过去

The speaker's position decides. If you are upstairs, your friend 上来 (comes up). If you are downstairs, your friend 上去 (goes up).

Places and things. A place goes between the verb and 来 / 去: 回家去, 进教室来. A thing can go after: 带来了一本书 / 带了一本书来.

Watch out

- wrong: 进来教室 → 进教室来.

13. Potential complement 得 / 不 (can / can't do it)

Form: verb + 得 + result (can) · verb + 不 + result (can't)

- 老师说得太快，我听不懂。 Lǎoshī shuō de tài kuài, wǒ tīng bu dǒng. – The teacher talks too fast; I can't understand.
- 字太小了，我看不清楚。 Zì tài xiǎo le, wǒ kàn bu qīngchu. – The writing is too small; I can't see it clearly.
- 这么多菜，我们吃不完。 – With this much food, we can't finish it.
- 你听得懂吗？ – Can you understand?

How it works. 得 or 不 between a verb and its result says whether the result is possible. It is about ability or circumstances, not permission.

Can	Can't	Meaning
听得懂	听不懂	(can't) understand by listening
看得见	看不见	(can't) see
买得到	买不到	(can't) get hold of
吃得完	吃不完	(can't) finish eating
来得及	来不及	there is (no) time

Questions. 你听得懂吗? or 你听得懂听不懂?

Watch out

- wrong: 不听懂 → 听不懂: 不 goes between the verb and the result.
- 听不懂 = can't understand (it is beyond me); 没听懂 = didn't understand this time: 我没听懂，请再说一遍.

14. Verb + 下去 (keep ...-ing)

Form: verb + 下去 (keep going) · verb + 不下去 (can't go on)

- 说下去，后来怎么样了? Shuō xiaqu, hòulái zěnmeyàng le? – Keep going: what happened next?
- 学中文不容易，但是你要坚持下去。 – Learning Chinese isn't easy, but you must keep going.
- 这样下去不行。 Zhèyàng xiaqu bù xíng. – It can't go on like this.
- 我听不下去了。 – I can't bear to listen any more.

How it works. After a verb, 下去 means "continue from now on". It is not about moving down: 读下去 = keep reading. It often comes with 继续, 要, 想 or 能: 我想在这儿住下去.

下去	起来
continues something already going	starts something new 唱下去 (keep singing)	唱起来 (start singing)
坚持下去	大家都笑起来了

Watch out

- When everyone suddenly starts laughing, it is 笑起来, not 笑下去.

How it works. A 跟 B 一样 says A and B are the same. Add an adjective to say in what way: 一样高, 一样忙, 一样贵. 跟 and 和 both work; 跟 is more common in speech. Before a noun, 一样的 means "the same": 一样的衣服.

Negatives and questions. 不 goes before 一样: 跟他不一样 (different from him). Ask with 吗 or 一样不一样: 北京的冬天跟上海的一样冷吗?

A 跟 B 一样 + adjective	A 比 B + adjective equal	one is more
哥哥跟弟弟一样高	哥哥比弟弟高

Watch out

- wrong: 不跟他一样 → 跟他不一样.
- wrong: 一样很高 → 一样高.

A 跟 B 一样 + adjective: as ... as

2. N1 + 有 + N2 + Adj (as ... as)

Form: A + 有 + B + (这么 / 那么) + adjective

- 他快有我这么高了！ Tā kuài yǒu wǒ zhème gāo le! – He's almost as tall as me!
- 这个西瓜有篮球那么大。 Zhège xīguā yǒu lánqiú nàme dà. – This watermelon is as big as a basketball.
- 你的家乡有哈尔滨那么冷吗? – Is your hometown as cold as Harbin?
- 我的中文已经有他那么好了。 – My Chinese is already as good as his.

How it works. A 有 B + adjective says A reaches B's level. It is common in questions and with 快 or 已经. The negative is the familiar 没有: 他没有我高.

A 跟 B 一样 + adjective	A 有 B 那么 + adjective
the two are equal	A reaches B's level
他跟我一样高	他有我这么高吗?

Watch out

- The adjective stays bare: wrong: 有他很高 → 有他那么高.

- 地铁没有高铁快。 – The subway isn't as fast as the high-speed train.

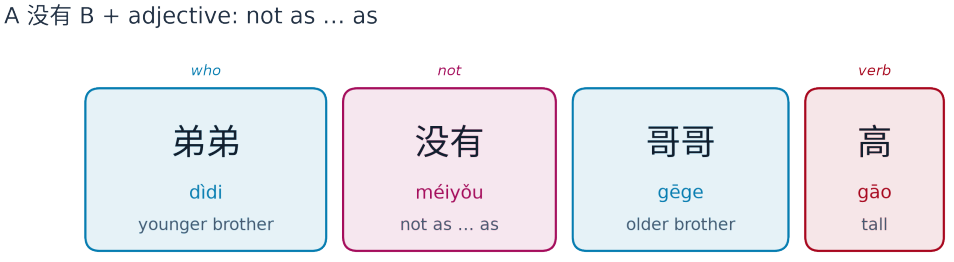

How it works. A 没有 B + adjective means "A is not as … as B". It is the usual negative of a 比 comparison. 那么 or 这么 before the adjective adds force.

Positive	Negative
哥哥比弟弟高。	弟弟没有哥哥高。
The older brother is taller.	The younger brother isn't as tall.

Swap A and B, use 没有, and keep the same adjective.

- The adjective stays bare: wrong: 没有他很高 → 没有他高.
- 不比 is a different idea ("not more … than", used to argue). The plain negative of 比 is 没有.

- 和北京比，广州暖和得多。 – Compared with Beijing, Guangzhou is much warmer.
- 我跟我哥哥比起来，还是比较矮。 – Compared with my brother, I'm still rather short.

How it works. 跟 B 比 (起来) sets the comparison first, usually at the start of the sentence with a comma; the comment on A follows with a bare adjective and an amount (多了, 一点). It can also follow the subject.

A 比 B + adjective	跟 B 比，A + adjective
one tight sentence	sets the scene first
这儿比上海安静。	跟上海比，这儿安静多了。

Watch out

- Don't use 比 twice: wrong: 比安静多了 → 安静多了.
- wrong: 比跟上海 → 跟上海比.

- 这个菜比那个还辣！ – This dish is even spicier than that one!
- 我喜欢茶，但我更喜欢咖啡。 – I like tea, but I like coffee even more.

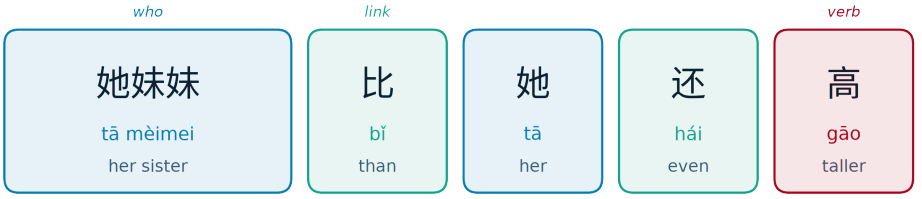

How it works. 更 or 还 means "even more": B is already like this, and A goes further. The order is 比 + B, then 更 / 还, then the bare adjective.

更 gèng	还 hái
neutral, common in writing	surprised or emphatic, in speech
also works without 比: 我更喜欢咖啡	needs the 比 phrase

Watch out

- No 很 or 非常 in a 比 sentence: wrong: 比他很高 → 比他更高.
- wrong: 更比我忙 → 比我更忙.

A 比 B 还 + adjective: even more

6. 比 … Adj + 多了 (much more than)

- 他比我大三岁。 Tā bǐ wǒ dà sān suì. – He's three years older than me.
- 妹妹比我小两岁。 – My sister is two years younger than me.

How it works. In a 比 sentence, how much more always comes after the adjective.

After the adjective	Meaning
多了 / 得多	much more (多了 is more spoken)
一点 / 一些	a little more
三岁, 十块	by an exact amount

多了 also works without 比 to report a change: 我的病好多了 (I'm much better now).

Watch out

- wrong: 多快了 or wrong: 很快多了 → 快多了.

Time words, numbers & particles

HSK 3

Small words that place events in time, count things and tell the time, and three particles that change what a sentence means (着, 了 and 呢). Most mistakes here are about order: the time word comes before the verb, and 以前 / 以后 come after the event they mark.

At a glance

Before, after and when

- 1. Time / Verb + 以前 – before …: 睡觉以前别看手机。
- 2. 以前，… – in the past, …: 以前这儿没有路，现在有很多车了。
- 3. 刚才 – a moment ago: 刚才有人给你打电话了。
- 4. Time / Verb + 时 – when …: 我小的时候常常去河边游泳。
- 5. 以后 – after / in the future: 大学毕业以后，我想去国外工作。
- 6. … ，后来 … – afterwards / later – past: 他去了深圳，后来在那儿开了一家公司。
- 7. 以后 vs 然后 vs 后来 – then / after: 我先去买东西，然后吃了午饭。

Numbers and the clock

- 8. Telling the hour – Number + 点: 我们早上七点上课。
- 9. Times to the minute – 点 … 分: 火车八点二十五分开。
- 10. 半 – half / and a half: 还有半个蛋糕和一个半西瓜。
- 11. Approximating with sequential numbers: 来了七八个人。
- 12. Big numbers – 万 / 亿: 重庆有三千多万人。

Particles

- 13. Verb + 着 – ongoing state: 门开着，灯也亮着。
- 14. Sentence-final 了 – change of state: 他是老师。
- 15. Questions with 呢 – and you? / where?: 我是成都人，你呢?
- 16. 的 / 得 / 地 – the three “de”: 他跑的很快。
- 17. 有的 – some / some…, others…: 有的同学想去海边，有的想去爬山。

1. Time / Verb + 以前 (before …)

Form: time / action + 以前 + main verb

- 睡觉以前别看手机。 Shuìjiào yǐqián bié kàn shǒujī. – Don’t look at your phone before bed.
- 星期五以前要交作业。 Xīngqīwǔ yǐqián yào jiāo zuòyè. – The homework must be handed in before Friday.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

- 吃饭以前要洗手。 – Wash your hands before you eat.
- 三天以前 / 三天前 – three days ago

How it works. Unlike English "before", 以前 yǐqián comes after the time or action it refers to: 八点以前, 上课以前. The whole phrase goes before the main verb: 你八点以前来吧.

In short fixed phrases, 前 alone does the same job: 饭前, 睡前, 三天前.

Watch out

- wrong: 以前上课 → 上课以前. 以前 at the front means "in the past" (next section).
- wrong: 我回家十点以前 → 我十点以前回家.

2. 以前，… (in the past, …)

Form: 以前 (+ subject) …， 现在 … · subject + 以前 + verb

- 以前这儿没有路，现在有很多车了。 Yǐqián zhèr méiyǒu lù, xiànzài yǒu hěn duō chē le. – There used to be no road here; now there are lots of cars.
- 我以前住在上海。 Wǒ yǐqián zhù zài Shànghǎi. – I used to live in Shanghai.
- 他以前不喜欢吃辣的，现在很喜欢。 – He didn't use to like spicy food; now he loves it.

How it works. On its own at the start, or after the subject, 以前 means "in the past, used to". It describes a past habit or state, often in contrast with 现在. A past habit usually needs no 了.

Which 以前? Look at what comes before it.

以前 alone	after a time or action
"in the past"	"before"
以前我不喝咖啡。	喝咖啡以前，我先吃早饭。

过去 is a slightly more formal "in the past". 原来 means "originally", stressing that things later changed: 他原来是老师，后来当了作家.

以前 … 现在 …: then and now

3. 刚才 (a moment ago)

Form: 刚才 + subject + … · subject + 刚才 + …

- 刚才有人给你打电话了。 Gāngcái yǒu rén gěi nǐ dǎ diànhuà le. – Someone called you a moment ago.
- 你刚才去哪儿了? Nǐ gāngcái qù nǎr le? – Where did you go just now?
- 刚才在下雨，现在停了。 – It was raining a moment ago; now it's stopped.
- 刚才我没听见。 – I didn't hear just now.

How it works. 刚才 gāngcái is a time word for "a moment ago", in the same situation. Like 昨天 or 今天, it goes before or after the subject. It works with actions, states (刚才很安静) and negatives (刚才我没听见).

刚才	刚	最近
minutes ago	"just", before the verb	recently, over days
他刚才走了	他刚走	我最近搬家了

Watch out

- 刚 cannot start a sentence: wrong: 刚他来了 → 刚才他来了.
- For "I moved house recently", use 最近, not 刚才.

刚才: a moment ago

4. Time / Verb + 时 (when ...)

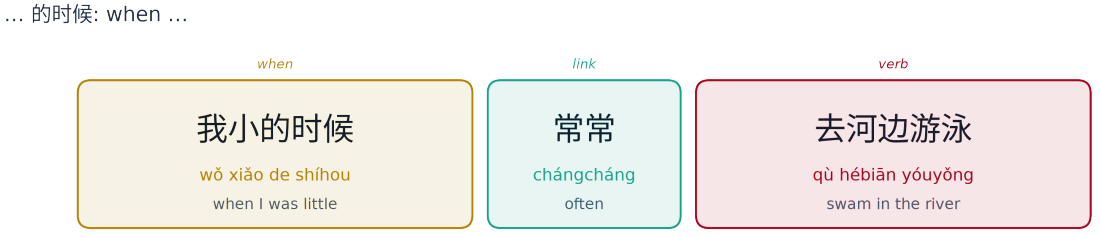

Form: clause + 的时候 (spoken) / 时 (written), main clause

- 我小的时候常常去河边游泳。 Wǒ xiǎo de shíhou chángcháng qù hébiān yóuyǒng. – When I was little, I often went swimming by the river.
- 我到家的时候，他已经睡了。 Wǒ dào jiā de shíhou, tā yǐjīng shuì le. – When I got home, he was already asleep.
- 你有空的时候给我打电话。 – Call me when you have time.
- 上课时，请关手机。 – Please turn off your phone in class.

How it works. Like 以前 and 以后, "when" comes after what it refers to. Use 的时候 in conversation. 时 is shorter and suits signs, writing and fixed phrases: 用餐时请勿吸烟 (no smoking while dining).

Watch out

- wrong: 时候下雨 → 下雨的时候.
- 什么时候 asks "when?"; it does not make a "when" clause: wrong: 我什么时候到家，他已经睡了 → 我到家的时候 ……

5. 以后 (after / in the future)

Form: time / action + 以后 + main clause · 以后 (from now on) + clause

- 大学毕业以后，我想去国外工作。 Dàxué bìyè yǐhòu, wǒ xiǎng qù guówài gōngzuò. – After I graduate, I want to work abroad.
- 你到了以后给我打电话。 Nǐ dàole yǐhòu gěi wǒ dǎ diànhuà. – Call me after you arrive.
- 以后我不迟到了。 – From now on, I won't be late.
- 以后我会早点儿睡。 – From now on I'll go to bed earlier.

How it works. After an event, 以后 yǐhòu means "after": 下课以后, 吃了饭以后, 三天以后. Alone at the start, it means "in the future, from now on". 后 is the short form in fixed phrases: 饭后, 毕业后.

以后	后来	然后
after X; from now on	later, in a past story	next step, past or future
毕业以后	后来他开了一家公司	先洗手，然后吃饭

Watch out

- wrong: 以后吃饭 means “eat in the future”. “After eating” is 吃饭以后.

6. ... ，后来 ... (afterwards / later – past)

Form: past event，后来 + what happened next

- 他去了深圳，后来在那儿开了一家公司。 Tā qùle Shēnzhèn, hòulái zài nàr kāile yì jiā gōngsī. – He went to Shenzhen and later started a company there.
- 开始我不喜欢他，后来我们成了朋友。 – At first I didn’t like him, but later we became friends.
- 他小时候很瘦，后来长胖了。 – He was thin as a child, but later he put on weight.
- 后来呢？ / 后来怎么样了？ – And then? / How did it turn out?

How it works. 后来 hòulái jumps forward in a past story, often over a gap of time. It starts the second clause, after a comma. 后来呢？ keeps a story going.

后来	然后
past stories only	past or future
a jump forward in time	the next step, close behind
后来长胖了	我们先吃饭，然后去买东西

Watch out

- For a plan, use 以后 or 然后: wrong: 我们后来再说 → 我们以后再说.
- 后来 is never added after an event: wrong: 毕业后来 → 毕业以后.

后来: later (in a past story)

7. 以后 vs 然后 vs 后来 (then / after)

Form: event + 以后 · 先 ……，然后 …… · past story，后来 ……

- 我先去买东西，然后吃了午饭。后来，我的老朋友给我打电话了。 – First I went shopping, then I had lunch. Later on, an old friend phoned me.
- 我们先吃饭，然后去看电影。 – Let's eat first, then see a film.
- 我们是大学同学，后来结婚了。 – We were classmates at university, and later we got married.
- 我到了以后给你打电话。 – I'll call you after I arrive.

How it works. Three words for "after", each with its own job.

Word	Job	Past or future
以后	after an event (下课以后); alone: from now on	both
然后	the next step, close behind	both
后来	a jump forward in a story	past only

然后 starts the next clause; it cannot follow an event the way 以后 does: 我到了以后 …… or 我到了，然后 …….

Watch out

- wrong: 我们后来再见 → 我们以后再见.
- wrong: 下课后来 → 下课以后.

先 → 然后 → 后来: tell it in order

8. Telling the hour (Number + 点)

Form: (part of day +) number + 点 + verb · 几点?

- 我们早上七点上课。 Wǒmen zǎoshang qī diǎn shàngkè. – We start class at seven in the morning.
- 现在几点? Xiànzài jǐ diǎn? – What time is it?
- 你几点下班? — 我六点下班。 – What time do you finish work? – At six.
- 我晚上九点睡觉。 – I go to bed at nine in the evening.

How it works. Number + 点 diǎn = o'clock. Ask with 几点. The part of the day comes first (早上, 中午, 下午, 晚上), then the hour, then the verb.

点	小时
a point on the clock	a length of time
三点 (3 o'clock)	三个小时 (three hours)

我三点开始，学了三个小时: I started at three and studied for three hours.

Watch out

- 2 o'clock is wrong: 二点 → 两点.
- wrong: 我下班六点 → 我六点下班.

9. Times to the minute (点 … 分)

Form: (part of day +) number + 点 + number + 分 + verb

- 火车八点二十五分开。 Huǒchē bā diǎn èrshíwǔ fēn kāi. – The train leaves at 8.25.
- 我早上六点一刻起床。 Wǒ zǎoshang liù diǎn yí kè qǐchuáng. – I get up at a quarter past six.
- 下午两点半见。 – See you at 2.30 p.m.

How it works. The larger unit always comes first: part of the day, then the hour, then the minutes. After ten minutes, 分 is often dropped in speech (八点二十五).

Time	Chinese
8.05	八点零五 (分)
7.30	七点半
9.15	九点一刻
9.45	九点三刻
9.55	差五分十点 (five to ten)
8.50	差十分九点

Watch out

- For 1–9 minutes, add 零: wrong: 八点五分 → 八点零五分.
- The time goes before the verb: wrong: 我起床七点 → 我七点起床.
- 2.00 is 两点, never wrong: 二点.

10. 半 (half / and a half)

Form: 半 + measure word (half a) · number + measure word + 半 (and a half) · 一半 (half of it)

- 还有半个蛋糕和一个半西瓜。 Hái yǒu bàn ge dàngāo hé yí ge bàn xīguā. – There's half a cake and one and a half watermelons left.
- 电影有两个半小时。 – The film is two and a half hours long.
- 一半的学生是女生。 – Half of the students are girls.
- 我只吃了一半。 – I only ate half.

How it works. Where 半 goes changes the meaning.

Pattern	Meaning	Example
半 + measure word	half a …	半个小时, 半杯水, 半年
number + measure word + 半	… and a half	一个半小时, 一年半
一半	half (of a whole)	我只吃了一半
hour + 半	half past	三点半

Watch out

- No 一 before 半 in “half a”: wrong: 一半个 → 半个.
- wrong: 一个小时半 → 一个半小时.

11. Approximating with sequential numbers

Form: two neighbouring numbers + measure word · 十几 / 几十 · number + 多 · number + 左右

- 来了七八个人。 Láile qī-bā ge rén. – Seven or eight people came.
- 班里有十几个学生。 Bān li yǒu shíjǐ ge xuésheng. – There are a dozen or so students in the class.
- 他三十岁左右。 – He’s around thirty.
- 我等了三个多小时。 – I waited over three hours.

How it works. Chinese has several ways to give a rough number.

Pattern	Meaning	Example
two neighbouring numbers, smaller first	about	三四个, 五六天
十几	eleven to nineteen	十几个
几十	dozens	几十个
round ten + 多 + measure word	-odd, over	二十多个人, 一百多块
number under ten + measure word + 多	a bit over	三个多小时
number + 左右	around	三十岁左右
差不多 + number	nearly	差不多五十个人

Watch out

- The measure word comes after both numbers: wrong: 三个四个人 → 三四个人.
- wrong: 二十个多 → 二十多个.

七八 / 二十多: roughly how many

12. Big numbers: 万 / 亿

Form: 万 (10,000) · 亿 (100,000,000)

- 重庆有三千多万人。 Chóngqìng yǒu sānqiān duō wàn rén. – Chongqing has over thirty million people.
- 中国有十四亿人。 Zhōngguó yǒu shísì yì rén. – China has 1.4 billion people.
- 这辆车两万五千块。 – This car costs 25,000 yuan.

How it works. English groups big numbers in threes (thousand, million); Chinese groups them in fours, with 万 and 亿.

Number	Chinese	Think of it as
10,000	一万	1 | 0000
100,000	十万	10 | 0000
1,000,000	一百万	100 | 0000
10,000,000	一千万	1000 | 0000
100,000,000	一亿	1 | 0000 | 0000
1,000,000,000	十亿	10 | 0000 | 0000

Converting. Mark off four digits from the right for 万, eight for 亿: 2,000,000 → 200|0000 → 两百万.

Watch out

- wrong: 一百千 → 十万 (there is no "hundred thousand" unit).
- wrong: 一万万 → 一百万 for a million.

Big numbers count in 万 (10 000)

13. Verb + 着 (ongoing state)

Form: verb + 着 (state) · verb_1 + 着 + verb_2 · 没 + verb + 着

- 门开着，灯也亮着。 Mén kāizhe, dēng yě liàngzhe. – The door is open, and the lights are on.

- 他笑着说：“ 没关系。” – He said with a smile, “It doesn't matter.”
- 我们坐着聊天。 – We sat and chatted.

How it works. 着 zhe after a verb describes a state that lasts: open, on, wearing, sitting. As verb_1 + 着 + verb_2, the first state continues while the second action happens.

在 + verb	verb + 着
in the middle of the action	the state that results
他在开门 (he is opening the door)	门开着 (the door is open)
他在穿衣服 (he is getting dressed)	他穿着白衬衫 (he is wearing a white shirt)

Watch out

- The negative uses 没: wrong: 门不开着 → 门没开着.

Verb + 着: a lasting state

- 我不喝咖啡了。 Wǒ bù hē kāfēi le. – I've stopped drinking coffee.

How it works. 了 at the end of a sentence announces that the situation has changed: 天冷了 (it's turned cold), 他不来了 (he's not coming any more), 绿灯了 (it's green now). It is not a past tense.

Verb + 了	Sentence + 了
a completed action	a change of situation

I ate an apple.	I'm not hungry any more.

Some sentences have both.

- 我不抽烟了 means "I've quit smoking", not "I didn't smoke".

15. Questions with 呢 (and you? / where?)

地	a verb follows	认真地工作, 慢慢地走

Sentence patterns: 把, 被 & question words

HSK 3

Sentence patterns that change the usual word order. 把 brings the object before the verb to show what happens to it; 被 makes the sentence passive. Place + verb + 着 says what is somewhere. Question words such as 什么 and 谁 can also mean "every" (谁都), "whatever" (想吃什么就吃什么) or "something" (你要买点儿什么吗), and 一 …… 也不 means "not even one".

At a glance

把 and 被

- 1. 把 sentences – do something to the object: 请把门关上。
- 2. 被 sentences – the passive: 我的自行车被人偷了!
- 3. Place + Verb + 着 + Noun – existential: 墙上挂着一张地图。

Question words with new jobs

- 4. Question Word + 都 – every / all: 谁都喜欢她。
- 5. 想 + QW + 就 + QW – whatever you like: 你想吃什么就吃什么。
- 6. Question words as "some- / any-": 你要买点儿什么吗?

Not even one

- 7. 一 … 也 / 都 … 不 / 没 – not even one: 我一块钱也没有了。

1. 把 sentences (do something to the object)

Form: subject + 把 + object + verb + result / direction / place / 了

- 请把门关上。 Qǐng bǎ mén guānshang. – Please shut the door.
- 我把作业做完了。 Wǒ bǎ zuòyè zuòwán le. – I've finished the homework.
- 他把书放在桌子上。 – He put the book on the table.
- 我把这个句子翻译成英文了。 – I translated this sentence into English.

How it works. 把 bǎ brings the object forward, before the verb, to say what happens to it: it is moved, changed or finished. The object is usually something both speakers can identify (the door, the homework). The verb cannot stand alone: something must follow it.

After the verb	Example
a result	把饭吃完了
a direction	把垃圾拿出去
a place	把书放在桌子上
成 + new form	把句子翻译成英文

Negatives and 别. 没, 不 and 别 go before 把: 我没把钥匙带来; 别把手机忘在家里!

Watch out

- wrong: 我把饭吃 → 我把饭吃完了.
- wrong: 我把钥匙没带来 → 我没把钥匙带来.
- Feeling and knowing verbs (喜欢, 知道) do not take 把.

把 + thing + verb + result: what was done to it

2. 被 sentences (the passive)

Form: receiver + 被 (+ doer) + verb + result / 了

- 我的自行车被人偷了! Wǒ de zìxíngchē bèi rén tōu le! – My bike has been stolen!
- 他被老师批评了。 Tā bèi lǎoshī pīpíng le. – He was told off by the teacher.
- 蛋糕被弟弟吃完了。 – The cake was eaten up by my little brother.
- 我的手机没被拿走。 – My phone wasn't taken.

How it works. 被 bèi makes a passive: the subject receives the action. The doer follows 被 or is left out. As with 把, the verb needs something after it. 被 sentences often report something unwelcome.

把	被
starts with the doer	starts with the receiver
弟弟把蛋糕吃完了。	蛋糕被弟弟吃完了。

Watch out

- wrong: 自行车被偷 → 自行车被偷了.
- 没 goes before 被: wrong: 被没偷 → 没被偷.

3. Place + Verb + 着 + Noun (existential)

Form: place + verb + 着 + (number + measure word) + noun

- 墙上挂着一张地图。 Qiáng shang guàzhe yì zhāng dìtú. – There's a map hanging on the wall.
- 桌子上放着一本书。 Zhuōzi shang fàngzhe yì běn shū. – There's a book lying on the table.
- 门口站着很多人。 – There are lots of people standing at the door.
- 书上写着他的名字。 – His name is written on the book.

How it works. This pattern describes what is in a place and how it is there: hanging (挂), lying (放, 躺), standing (站), sitting (坐), written (写). The place comes first, without 在. The thing is usually new to the listener: 一张, 很多.

有	verb + 着
only says it exists there	also shows how it is there
墙上有一张地图	墙上挂着一张地图

Watch out

- wrong: 在墙上挂着一张画 → 墙上挂着一张画.
- wrong: 桌子上放着那本书 → 桌子上放着一本书 (that book is already known; say 那本书在桌子上).

4. Question Word + 都 (every / all)

Form: question word + 都 / 也 + (不 / 没) + verb · 哪 + measure word + noun + 都

- 谁都喜欢她。 Shéi dōu xǐhuan tā. – Everyone likes her.
- 他什么也没说。 Tā shénme yě méi shuō. – He didn't say anything.
- 周末我哪儿都不想去。 – I don't want to go anywhere this weekend.
- 哪个菜都好吃。 – Every dish is delicious.

How it works. A question word + 都 means "every-, any-"; with 不 or 没 it means "no-".

Question word	+ 都 + verb	+ 都 / 也 + 不 / 没
谁	everyone	nobody
什么	everything	nothing
哪儿	everywhere	nowhere
什么时候	any time	never

The question word moves before 都 and the verb. In the negative, 也 and 都 both work.

Watch out

- wrong: 我吃什么都 → 我什么都吃.

5. 想 + QW + 就 + QW (whatever you like)

Form: (subject) 想 + verb + question word, 就 + verb + same question word

- 你想吃什么就吃什么。 Nǐ xiǎng chī shénme jiù chī shénme. – Eat whatever you like.
- 你想坐哪儿就坐哪儿。 – Sit wherever you like.
- 你什么时候有空，就什么时候来。 – Come whenever you're free.
- 谁想去谁去。 – Whoever wants to go can go.

How it works. The same question word appears in both halves and refers to the same thing: whatever, wherever, whenever, whoever. The verb usually repeats too. It is a statement, not a question.

随便 says "as you like" on its own (A: 吃什么? B: 随便). The question-word pattern says exactly what is free: 想买多少就买多少 (buy as many as you want).

Watch out

- Use the same word twice: wrong: 想吃什么就吃哪个 → 想吃什么就吃什么.
- No 吗 and no question mark.

6. Question words as "some- / any-"

Form: question word in a 吗 question · 不 + verb + 什么 · 好像 / 可能 + 什么

- 你要买点儿什么吗? Nǐ yào mǎi diǎnr shénme ma? – Do you want to buy anything?
- 有谁给我打电话吗? Yǒu shéi gěi wǒ dǎ diànhuà ma? – Did anyone call me?
- 他好像有什么事。 – He seems to have something on his mind.
- 我不想吃什么。 – I don't feel like eating anything in particular.

How it works. In a 吗 question, a question word stops asking and means "some-, any-": 什么 = anything, 谁 = anyone, 哪儿 = anywhere. The same happens after 不, 好像 and 可能.

Question	Meaning
你去哪儿了?	Where did you go?
你去哪儿了吗?	Did you go anywhere?

不 + verb + 什么	什么都不 + verb
not much, nothing in particular (soft)	nothing at all (total)
我不想吃什么	我什么都不想吃

什么 in a 吗 question: anything

7. 一 … 也 / 都 … 不 / 没 (not even one)

Form: 一 + measure word + noun + 也 / 都 + 没 / 不 + verb · 一点儿也不 + adjective

- 我一块钱也没有了。 Wǒ yí kuài qián yě méiyǒu le. – I don't have a single yuan left.
- 我一个人也不认识。 Wǒ yí ge rén yě bú rènshi. – I don't know a single person.
- 他今天一口饭都没吃。 – He hasn't eaten a single mouthful today.
- 今天一点儿也不冷。 – It isn't cold at all today.

How it works. This is a strong negative: "not even one". The "one" phrase moves before the verb, after the subject. 也 and 都 both work; 也 is slightly more common in speech.

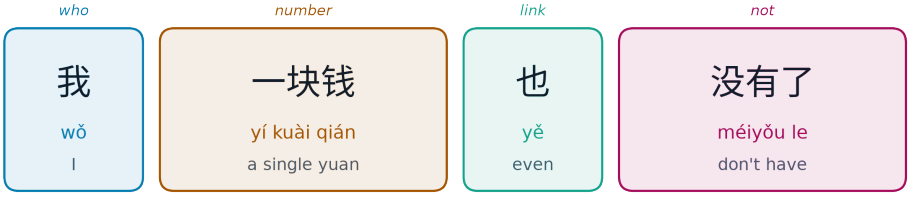

没	不
it did not happen	habits, wishes, refusals
我一本书也没买	我一口也不想吃

With an adjective, use 一点儿也不: 一点儿也不累.

Watch out

- wrong: 我没买一本书也 → 我一本书也没买.

一 + measure + noun + 也 + 没 / 不: not a single one

Conjunctions, conditions & prepositions

HSK 3

Words that join ideas. Some give conditions (如果, 只要, 只有), some choose between options (或者, 还是), some add or exclude (不但 …… 而且, 除了) and some give a purpose (为了). Prepositions such as 跟, 关于 and 向 tell you with whom, about what and in which direction. Most of these come in pairs, so learn the second half with the first.

At a glance

Conditions

- 1. 如果 … ，就 … – if …, then …: 如果机票便宜，我们就去海南。
- 2. 如果 … 的话 – if …: 如果明天下雨的话，我们就在家看电影。
- 3. 只要 … ，就 … – as long as: 只要不下雨，我们就去野餐。
- 4. 只有 … ，才 … – only if: 只有知道密码，才能进去。
- 5. … ，才 … – only then / only after: 你做完作业，才能玩游戏。
- 6. 直到 … ，… 才 … – all the way until: 我一直等到十二点，她才给我发消息。
- 7. 那么 … – then / in that case: 那么，我们明天去吧。

Or

- 8. A 或者 B – or – in statements: 星期六或者星期天都可以。
- 9. A 还是 B? – or – in questions: 您喝茶还是喝咖啡?
- 10. 还是 vs 或者 – or: question vs statement: 米饭还是面条?

Adding, excluding and purpose

- 11. 不但 … ，而且 … – not only … but also: 这家饭馆不但便宜，而且很好吃。
- 12. 除了 … 都 / 还 – except / besides: 除了我，大家都去了。
- 13. 为了 – in order to / for the sake of: 为了考上好大学，她每天五点起床学习。

With, about and towards

- 14. 跟 + Person + Verb – with someone: 我跟朋友一起去云南。
- 15. 关于 + Topic – about / regarding: 这是一本关于中国历史的书。
- 16. 向 + Direction / Person + Verb – towards: 你向前走，然后向右拐。

1. 如果 ... ，就 ... (if ..., then ...)

Form: 如果 A，(subject +) 就 + B

- 如果机票便宜，我们就去海南。 Rúguǒ jīpiào piányi, wǒmen jiù qù Hǎinán. – If the plane tickets are cheap, we'll go to Hainan.
- 如果你不快点儿，就会迟到。 – If you don't hurry, you'll be late.
- 如果你不舒服，就去看医生吧。 – If you're not well, go and see a doctor.

How it works. 就 links the result to the condition: “if A, then B”. It goes after the subject of the result clause: 如果你来，我就给你做饭. The pattern is used for plans, warnings and advice.

如果	因为
a possibility	a fact that already holds
如果下雨，我就不去。	因为下雨，所以我没去。

Watch out

- wrong: 就我去 → 我就去.
- wrong: 如果下雨，所以我不去 → 如果下雨，我就不去.

2. 如果 … 的话 (if …)

Form: 如果 / 要是 + condition + (的话), (就) + result

- 如果明天下雨的话，我们就在家看电影。 Rúguǒ míngtiān xià yǔ dehuà, wǒmen jiù zài jiā kàn diànyǐng. – If it rains tomorrow, we’ll stay home and watch a film.
- 你有问题的话，可以问我。 Nǐ yǒu wèntí dehuà, kěyǐ wèn wǒ. – If you have any questions, you can ask me.
- 要是你不想去的话，就别去了。 – If you don’t want to go, don’t.

How it works. 的话 dehuà closes the “if” clause. Either 如果 or 的话 can be dropped in speech: 如果下雨, 下雨的话 and 如果下雨的话 all mean “if it rains”. 要是 yàoshi is a spoken “if” and works the same way.

The condition comes first, unlike English, where “if” can come second.

Watch out

- wrong: 来找我如果你有时间 → 如果你有时间，来找我.
- 的话 goes at the end of the condition, not after the result.

如果 … 的话，就 …: if

3. 只要 … ，就 … (as long as)

Form: 只要 + condition，(subject +) 就 + result

- 只要不下雨，我们就去野餐。 Zhǐyào bú xià yǔ, wǒmen jiù qù yěcān. – As long as it doesn't rain, we'll go on the picnic.
- 只要每天练习，你的中文就会越来越好。 – As long as you practise every day, your Chinese will keep improving.
- 只要有时间，我就去看你。 – Whenever I have time, I'll come and see you.

How it works. 只要 zhǐyào says the condition is enough: if A happens, B follows. 只要 opens the first clause; 就 goes after the subject of the second clause.

只要 A，就 B	只有 A，才 B
A is enough (easy)	A is the only way (necessary)
只要有钱就能买	只有努力，才能成功

Watch out

- wrong: 只要你来，就我很高兴 → 只要你来，我就很高兴.

只要 …，就 …: as long as

4. 只有 … ，才 … (only if)

Form: 只有 + condition，(subject +) 才 + verb

- 只有坐飞机，才能今天到。 – Only by flying can we arrive today.

- 只有他才知道答案。 Zhǐyǒu tā cái zhīdào dá'àn. – Only he knows the answer.

How it works. 只有 zhǐyǒu A，才 B says A is necessary: without A, no B. A can be a condition, a method or a person. 才 goes after the subject of the second clause, often with 能 or 会.

只有 A，才 B	只要 A，就 B
A is the only way	A is enough
只有努力，才能成功	只要有护照，就能买票

Watch out

- 只有 pairs with 才: wrong: 只有你去，他就会去 → 只有你去，他才会去.

- 我问了他三次，他才告诉我。 – I asked him three times before he told me.
- 我等了很久，他才来。 – I waited a long time before he came.

How it works. 才 in the second clause says B happens only after, or only if, A: the condition had to come first, or took a lot of effort. 才 goes after the subject of the second clause, often with 能 or 会. Adding 只有 at the start makes the condition explicitly necessary: 只有做完作业，才能玩游戏.

Watch out

- wrong: 才他告诉我 → 他才告诉我.

…，才 …: only then

6. 直到 … ，… 才 … (all the way until)

Form: 直到 + time / event，subject + 才 + verb · verb + 到 + time

- 直到毕业，他才明白老师的话。 – It wasn't until he graduated that he understood what the teacher meant.
- 雨一直下到晚上。 – The rain kept falling until the evening.

Watch out

- The delayed result takes 才, not 就: wrong: 直到十点他就来了 → 直到十点他才来.

一直 … 到 …，才 …: until

7. 那么 … (then / in that case)

- 如果你不喜欢，那么就换一个吧。 – If you don't like it, then change it.

How it works. At the start of a reply, 那么 (spoken: 那) means "then, in that case". It draws a conclusion from what was just said, and leads to a suggestion or a question: 那你打算怎么办?

那么 at the start	那么 before an adjective
then, in that case	so

- 不但我喜欢，而且我朋友也喜欢。 – Not only do I like it, my friend does too.

How it works. 不但 …… 而且 …… adds a further, often stronger, point. 还 or 也 can follow 而且. 而且 can also stand alone to add a point: 天气很冷，而且下雪了. 不仅 is a more written word for 不但.

Where does 不但 go?

One subject	Two subjects
after the subject	before the first subject

Say it aloud: stories, comparisons and reasons

HSK 3

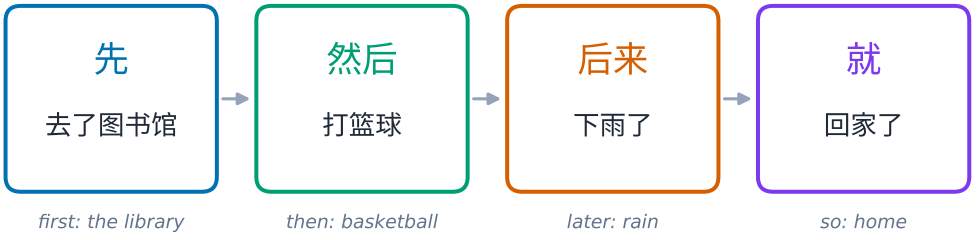

Tell a story someone can follow

A classmate asks what happened on Saturday. Give a short answer with a beginning, an event and an outcome. Time words help organise it, but a story does not need a surprise or a fixed number of verbs.

星期六我先去了图书馆，然后和朋友打篮球。后来下雨了，我们就回家了。

Xīngqīliù wǒ xiān qù le túshūguǎn, ránhòu hé péngyou dǎ lánqiú. Hòulái xià yǔ le, wǒmen jiù huí jiā le.

On Saturday I first went to the library, then played basketball with friends. Later it rained, so we went home.

先 and 然后 order activities; 后来 moves a past story forward. The rain explains going home. The listener does not need every detail of the day. Retell this with a different activity and an outcome that still follows from the facts.

Compare the same feature

地铁比公交车快。 The metro is faster than the bus.

公交车没有地铁快。 The bus is not as fast as the metro.

The standard follows 比 or 没有. To make the difference large, say 地铁比公交车快多了; to make it small, say 快一点儿. In this simple comparison use a bare adjective, rather than 比公交车很快. A speed comparison does not establish which option is cheaper or more comfortable.

Give a reason without inventing it

因为下雨了，所以我们回家了。 Because it rained, we went home.

因为 and 所以 may appear together, but either can be omitted when the relation is clear. Both are not compulsory in every answer. Compare 下雨了，我们就回家了: the order and 就 also connect the events. State a reason supported by the story.

Work through a follow-up

A partner asks 为什么不坐公交车？ Why not take the bus?

今天时间不多。地铁比公交车快，所以我想坐地铁。 There is little time today. The metro is faster than the bus, so I want to take the metro.

This answers the actual question. It does not need a story if the comparison and reason are enough. If the partner asks 多少钱？, give a price or say you do not know; do not repeat the speed comparison as if it supplied a fare.

Practise interaction

Prepare key words rather than a full script. Speak for about half a minute, let a partner ask one follow-up, and answer it. This is a classroom practice duration, not an official test limit. If alone, record an answer, pause, and give yourself a different question.

Check whether the events are in order, the compared feature is clear, and the reason fits the outcome. Ask a listener to comment on clarity and pronunciation. Different sentences can achieve the same task.

Practice

1. Put the story in order with 先, 然后, 后来: 我们回家了 / 我去了商店 / 下雨了 / 我和朋友喝了咖啡.
2. Fill the gap: 这个苹果 _ _ 那个苹果大。
3. Make the difference large: 今天比昨天冷。
4. Rewrite with 没有, keeping the meaning: 我的房间比你的房间小。(Start: 我的房间 ……)
5. Find the mistake: 地铁比公交车很快。
6. A partner asks 你为什么没去打篮球? Give a reason in one sentence.

Mixed practice

These questions mix the patterns and use new situations.

7. Find and fix the problem. A classmate says that every spoken reason needs both 因为 and 所以. Correct the rule.

8. Use it yourself. Tell a weekend story with three events, then answer the question why one plan changed.
