Human resource management (2.1-2.7)

International Baccalaureate · IB Diploma · Business Management · SL · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
Human resource management /ˈhjuːmən rɪˈzɔːs ˈmænɪdʒmənt/	Human resource management looks after hiring, training and supporting staff.
workforce planning /ˈwɜːkfɔːs ˈplænɪŋ/	Workforce planning works out how many staff the firm will need.
labour turnover /ˈleɪbə ˈtɜːnəʊvə/	High labour turnover means many workers leave each year.
demographic change	An ageing population is a demographic change affecting recruitment.
labour mobility /ˈleɪbə məʊˈbɪlɪti/	Better transport can improve labour mobility between regions.
migration /maɪˈgreɪʃn/	Migration moves workers from one country to another.
flexi-time	Flexi-time lets staff choose when to start and finish work.
teleworking	Teleworking allows an employee to work from home.
gig economy	Short delivery jobs are part of the gig economy.
recruitment /rɪˈkruːtmənt/	Recruitment finds people to fill jobs.
job description /dʒɒb dɪˈskrɪpʃn/	A job description lists the tasks a worker will perform.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
person specification /ˈpɜːsn ˌspesɪfɪˈkeɪʃn/	A person specification lists the skills a job applicant needs.
training /ˈtreɪnɪŋ/	Training teaches employees useful work skills.
induction training /ɪnˈdʌkʃn ˈtreɪnɪŋ/	Induction training introduces new staff to the business.
on-the-job training /ɒnðə dʒɒb ˈtreɪnɪŋ/	Learning beside an experienced worker is on-the-job training.
off-the-job training /ɒf ðə dʒɒb ˈtreɪnɪŋ/	A course away from normal work is off-the-job training.
cognitive training	Cognitive training builds thinking and problem-solving skills.
behavioural training	Behavioural training teaches staff how to work well with others.
appraisal /əˈpreɪzl/	In the yearly appraisal, the manager reviews how well the worker did.
dismissal /dɪˈsmɪsl/	Serious misconduct may lead to dismissal.
redundancy /rɪˈdʌndənsi/	A job disappearing after automation can lead to redundancy.
span of control /spæn ɒv kənˈtrəʊl/	A manager with six workers below them has a span of control of six.
levels of hierarchy	A tall organisation has many levels of hierarchy.
chain of command /tʃeɪn ɒv kəˈmænd/	The chain of command shows who reports to whom.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
delegation /ˌdelɪˈgeɪʃn/	Through delegation, a manager lets a worker make some decisions.
centralisation /ˌsentrəlaɪˈzeɪʃn/	Centralisation keeps key decisions with senior managers.
decentralisation /dɪˌsentrəlaɪˈzeɪʃn/	Decentralisation gives more decisions to local managers.
bureaucracy /bjʊəˈrɒkrəsi/	Too much bureaucracy can delay simple decisions.
delayering /dɪˈleɪərɪŋ/	Delayering removes levels of management.
organisation chart /ˌɔːgənaɪˈzeɪʃn tʃɑːt/	An organisation chart shows roles and reporting relationships.
functional structure	A functional structure groups staff into departments such as finance.
product-based structure	A product-based structure groups staff by the products they handle.
regional structure	A regional structure groups staff by geographical area.
matrix structure /ˈmeɪtrɪks ˈstrʌktʃə/	A matrix structure can give an employee both project and department managers.
management /ˈmænɪdʒmənt/	Management plans and organises work to meet objectives.
leadership /ˈliːdəʃɪp/	Leadership gives people direction and encourages them to act.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
autocratic /ˌɔːtəʊˈkrætɪk/	An autocratic leader makes decisions with little staff input.
paternalistic /pəˌtɜːnəˈlɪstɪk/	A paternalistic leader decides what is best for staff, like a parent.
democratic /ˌdeməˈkrætɪk/	A democratic leader involves staff in decisions.
laissez-faire /ˈleɪsez feə/	A laissez-faire leader lets skilled staff decide for themselves.
situational /ˌsɪtʃuːˈeɪʃənl/	A situational leader changes style to fit the situation.
motivation /ˌməʊtɪˈveɪʃn/	Praise can raise workers' motivation.
demotivation	Unfair treatment can cause demotivation.
Frederick Taylor	Frederick Taylor believed workers are motivated mainly by money.
scientific management /saɪənˈtɪfɪk ˈmænɪdʒmənt/	Scientific management studies tasks to find efficient working methods.
piece rate /piːs reɪt/	A piece rate pays workers for each unit produced.
Abraham Maslow	Abraham Maslow arranged human needs in a hierarchy.
hierarchy of needs /ˈhaɪərɑːki ɒv niːdz/	Maslow's hierarchy of needs goes from food and safety up to personal growth.
self-actualisation /self ˌæktʃuːəlaɪˈzeɪʃn/	Self-actualisation means becoming the best you can be.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
Frederick Herzberg	Frederick Herzberg split work factors into hygiene factors and motivators.
hygiene factors /ˈhaɪdʒiːn ˈfæktəz/	Pay and working conditions are hygiene factors: they stop workers being unhappy.
motivators /ˈməʊtɪveɪtəz/	Achievement and recognition are motivators in Herzberg's theory.
David McClelland	David McClelland studied needs for achievement, affiliation and power.
need for achievement	People with a strong need for achievement like hard but possible goals.
need for affiliation	People with a strong need for affiliation want to be liked by their team.
need for power	People with a strong need for power want to control others.
Deci and Ryan	Deci and Ryan developed self-determination theory.
self-determination theory /self dɪˌtɜːmɪˈneɪʃn ˈθɪəri/	Self-determination theory says people need choice, skill and good relationships.
autonomy /ɔːˈtɒnəmi/	Autonomy lets workers decide how to do their own tasks.
competence	Learning a skill increases a worker's sense of competence.
relatedness	Feeling connected to colleagues supports relatedness.
salary /ˈsæləri/	A salary is usually a fixed regular payment.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
job enrichment /dʒɒb en'rɪtʃmənt/	Job enrichment gives a worker more responsibility and more interesting tasks.
wages /'weɪdʒɪz/	Workers may receive wages based on hours worked.
job rotation /dʒɒb rəʊ'teɪʃn/	Job rotation moves workers between different tasks.
commission /kə'mɪʃn/	A salesperson earns commission on sales made.
job enlargement /dʒɒb en'lɑ:dʒmənt/	Job enlargement adds more tasks at a similar responsibility level.
profit-related pay	Profit-related pay links rewards to business profit.
empowerment /em'paʊəmənt/	Empowerment gives workers authority to make decisions.
performance-related pay /pə'fɔ:məns rɪ'leɪtɪd peɪ/	Performance-related pay links rewards to measured results.
purpose /'pɜ:pəs/	Helping local families gives staff a sense of purpose.
employee share ownership	Employee share ownership lets staff own part of their company.
teamwork	Good teamwork helps staff solve problems together.
fringe payments	A company car is one of the firm's fringe payments.
communication /kəˌmju:nɪ'keɪʃn/	Clear communication helps the two shifts work together.
formal communication	An official staff email is formal communication.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Word	Example
informal communication	A chat over lunch is informal communication.
grapevine /ˈgreɪpvaɪn/	News spreads unofficially through the workplace grapevine.
barriers to communication	Noise and unclear language are barriers to communication.
jargon /ˈdʒɑːgən/	Technical jargon can confuse a new employee.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn