Supported focus – Latin close reading and literary effect

International Baccalaureate · IB Diploma · Classical Languages · HL · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
close reading /kləʊs 'ri:dɪŋ/	Through close reading, explain how repetition shapes the speaker's tone.
translation /træn'sleɪʃn/	A good translation keeps the meaning of the Latin.
evidence /'evɪdəns/	Use the writer's examples as evidence for your answer.
argument /'ɑ:gju:mənt/	The last paragraph shows a weakness in the argument.
anaphora /ə'næfərə/	Both lines start with "we", creating anaphora. "we"
diction /'dɪkʃn/	Choose exact diction, not exaggerated words.
syntax /'sɪntæks/	Syntax is the order of words in a sentence.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn