

Solutions

2.1 Fixed priority may be predictable but can entrench disadvantage. Joint review can incorporate changing needs but requires information, authority and dispute resolution. Compare enforceability, available water, unequal capacities and those absent from negotiation. Authored points for identifying relevant evidence, explaining a supported inference and a material limit.

3.1 Compare changed availability, essential needs, unequal vulnerability and implementation capacity. Review allocations through agreed dispute and monitoring procedures. Predictability matters, but keeping an infeasible or unfair rule can undermine durability and acceptance. Authored points for a relevant judgement, reason tied to the case and justified qualification or method. Accept a supported alternative.
