Experimenting with music

International Baccalaureate · IB Diploma · Music · SL · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
experimenting	Experimenting with sounds helps you find new ideas.
one variable	Change only one variable, such as speed, and keep everything else the same.
prepared piano	A prepared piano has objects placed on its strings to change the sound.
timbre /ˈtæmbə/	Timbre is the special sound of each instrument.
texture /ˈtekstʃə/	Thick texture has many instruments playing at once.
monophonic	A monophonic texture has only one melody line.
major third	C to E is a major third. C E metre	A waltz has a metre of three beats in a bar.
tresillo	The tresillo rhythm groups eight beats as 3 + 3 + 2. 3 + 3 + 2
rationale /ˌræʃəˈnæl/	Write a rationale that explains your choices.
commentary /ˈkɒməntri/	Add a short commentary about each piece.
experimentation /ekˌsperɪmənˈteɪʃn/	Experimentation means trying out new musical ideas.
accent /ˈæksənt/	An accent is a note played louder than the others.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn