2.1 The argument assumes accuracy always outweighs accountability, rights and other values. Challenge that priority with a case where explanation or appeal matters; acknowledge that accuracy can still have substantial value. Authored points for identifying relevant evidence, explaining a supported inference and a material limit.

3.1 Use the system for a specified decision class only where relevant validation, explanation, appeal and human accountability meet justified standards. Accuracy can support this conditional recommendation but cannot by itself override every right or value. Test the revised premises and exceptions. Authored points for a relevant judgement, reason tied to the case and justified qualification or method. Accept a supported alternative.
