

Solutions

2.1 Ask how authority was exercised in a bounded setting. Compare minutes if available, document purpose and approved voluntary accounts; distinguish formal rules from practice. Neither one interested source nor one dissenter settles the whole issue. Authored points for identifying relevant evidence, explaining a supported inference and a material limit.

3.1 It can compare the public justification and the individual's reported experience, with attribution and limits. It cannot reconstruct every decision or hidden motive. Revise the question to the available source claims, identifying minutes or varied independent accounts as precise missing evidence. Authored points for a relevant judgement, reason tied to the case and justified qualification or method. Accept a supported alternative.
