Listening skills

IGCSE English · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
recording /rɪˈkɔːdɪŋ/	Listen to the recording again.
predict /prɪˈdɪkt/	Look at the title and predict what the text will say.
specific /spəˈsɪfɪk/	Give specific details, such as names, numbers and places.
directions /daɪˈrekʃnz/	Can you give me directions to the station?
opinion /əˈpɪnɪən/	In my opinion, the film was too long.
feelings /ˈfiːlɪŋz/	The speaker talks about her feelings on her first day at school.
connect /kəˈnekt/	Listen for words that connect ideas, like “but” and “so”. “but” “so” suggests /səˈdʒests/	The speaker suggests going by train.
multiple-choice /ˈmʌltɪpl tʃɔɪs/	In a multiple-choice question, you choose one answer from A, B, C or D. A、B、C D distractors /dɪˈstræktəz/	Watch out for distractors: wrong answers that sound right.
attitude /ˈætɪtjuːd/	The writer’s attitude is how they feel about the topic.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn