10. Speaking skills

Starter Quiz ·

IGCSE English Name: _____ Score: _____

1. Your answer in the speaking test should be…

   ☐ One word

   ☐ Short, then add a little more

   ☐ Completely silent

2. In a short talk, you should…

   ☐ develop each point with a reason or example

   ☐ stay silent

   ☐ list points with no detail

3. It is fine to ask the examiner to repeat a question.

   ☐ True ☐ False

4. Use a phrase like 'for _____' to give an example.

   _____

5. If you forget a word, say it _____ way.

   _____

6. Speaking very fast is more important than speaking clearly.

   ☐ True ☐ False

7. You forget "stall" while describing a market. Which move best keeps the meaning clear?

   ☐ Describe it as a small place where a seller offers goods

   ☐ Change to an unrelated topic

   ☐ Repeat a memorised introduction

IGCSE English

1. Short, then add a little more

   Answer, then develop it a little.

2. develop each point with a reason or example

   Develop your points, don't just list them.

3. True

   Yes – a polite request for repetition is fine.

4. example

   'For example' introduces an example.

5. another

   Paraphrasing keeps the conversation going.

6. False

   No – clear is better than fast.

7. Describe it as a small place where a seller offers goods

   A short description preserves the meaning and lets you continue the relevant point.