

11. Vocabulary and text types

Starter Quiz ·

IGCSE English Name: _____ Score: _____

1. 'Make a decision' is an example of a...

☐ spelling rule

☐ paragraph

☐ collocation
2. A report mainly...

☐ lists your feelings

☐ tells a funny story

☐ gives facts to a person in charge
3. Learn a new word with its meaning, its spelling and how it _____.

4. An essay...

☐ is a message to one friend

☐ gives short facts only

☐ argues a point of view
5. All text types use exactly the same style.

☐ True ☐ False
6. An _____ is written for many readers, like a magazine. (article / email)

7. Each text type, such as a report, article or email, needs its own style.

☐ True ☐ False

11. Vocabulary and text types

Answers ·

IGCSE English

1. collocation

Words that naturally go together are collocations.
2. gives facts to a person in charge

A report gives factual information.
3. sounds

Knowing how a word sounds helps you use it.
4. argues a point of view

An essay argues a point of view.
5. False

No – each text type has its own style.
6. article

An article reaches a general audience.
7. True

True. Readers expect different layouts, registers and features for each text type, so match the style to the task.