

Solutions

Each answer shows the steps, then the result.

2.1

(a)

- e.g. “In the library you can hear the clock.”

(b)

- e.g. “Forty parents signed the letter within a week.”

(c)

- e.g. “We came back sunburnt, exhausted and already asking to go again.”

2.2

- a fairly stated objection and an answer
- e.g. “It is true that friends sitting together talk more. But the same pair talk wherever they are put; what changes is that everyone else is now sitting next to someone they will not ask for help.”

2.3

- the hook, the case, the objection, the answer, the close

3.1

- content (4): a clear position, two developed points, a fairly stated objection, and an answer to it
- language (4): controlled informal register, precise vocabulary, varied sentence length, accurate writing

3.2

- any two: replace empty words “very good”/“interesting”/“nice” with specific detail; name one thing actually seen; replace “everybody enjoyed it” with an observed reaction; give a reason with the recommendation
