以上 / 以下 / 以内 / 以外—upper and lower limits

These "nouns of locality" set limits on a number, level, or rank. 以上 = "and above," 以下 = "and below," 以内 = "within," 以外 = "beyond." They come after the amount, and are generally non-inclusive (十岁以下 = under ten).

Structure: Amount / Level + 以上 / 以下 / 以内 / 以外

{zh: 十八岁 |shí bā suì|eighteen / 以上 |yǐ shàng|and over / 才 |cái|only then / 能 |néng|may / 进 |jìn|enter / 。 }

Only those eighteen and over may enter.

{zh: 请 |qǐng|please / 在 |zài|within / 三天 |sān tiān|three days / 以内 |yǐ nèi / 回复 |huí fù|reply / 。 }

Please reply within three days.

Remember: the limit word comes AFTER the amount (十岁以下, not 以下十岁), and it's generally non-inclusive (十岁以下 = under ten). Picture a number line: 以上 points up, 以下 down, 以内 stays inside, 以外 goes past.

Watch out

- 以内 = within a range; 以外 = beyond / except —don't mix the inside/outside pair.
