Agreement, verb forms, modifiers and logical parallelism

SAT · Vocabulary in context

Word	Example
finite verb /ˈfaɪnaɪt vɜːb/	In “Birds fly south”, “fly” is a finite verb. “Birds fly south” “fly” antecedent /ˌæntɪˈsiːdənt/	In “The students said they were tired”, “students” is the antecedent of “they”. “The students said they were tired” “students” “they” modifier /ˈmɒdɪfaɪə/	The opening modifier must describe the subject that comes next.
dangling modifier	“Walking home, the rain started” has a dangling modifier: the rain was not walking.
parallelism /ˈpærəlelɪzəm/	Use parallelism in a list: “to read, to write and to speak”.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn