Word Quest 2

List 7 · Home and daily life 2

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

lawn n. /lɔːn/

an area of short grass in a garden or park

Family: lawns Use it with: mow the lawn · keep off the lawn

Dad cuts the lawn every Saturday morning.

mend v. /mend/

to repair something that is broken or torn

Family: mends · mended Use it with: mend a shirt · mend a fence

Grandma mended the hole in my jeans.

mess n. /mes/

a dirty or untidy state

Family: messy (adj.) Use it with: make a mess · in a mess · what a mess

Your room is a mess! Clean it now.

nap n./v. /næp/

a short sleep during the day

Family: naps · napped Use it with: take a nap · have a nap

Grandpa takes a nap after lunch every day.

necklace n. /ˈnekləs/

a piece of jewellery worn around the neck

Family: necklaces Use it with: a gold necklace · wear a necklace

She wore her grandmother's pearl necklace to the wedding.

net n. /net/

material made of string with holes in it; also, the internet

Family: nets Use it with: a fishing net · a basketball net Tip: The Net is a short name for the internet.

The ball hit the net and fell back on my side.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

outfit n. /ˈaʊtfɪt/

a set of clothes worn together

Family: outfits Use it with: a party outfit · a summer outfit

I need a new outfit for my cousin's wedding.

parcel n. /ˈpɑːsl/

something wrapped in paper or a box, sent by post

Family: parcels Use it with: send a parcel · a parcel for

A parcel arrived for you: it's from Japan!

refrigerator n. /rɪˈfrɪdʒəreɪtə/

a machine that keeps food cold

Family: refrigerators · fridge Use it with: in the refrigerator Tip: Usually shortened to "fridge".

Put the milk back in the refrigerator.

routine n. /ruːˈtiːn/

the usual things you do every day, in the same order

Family: routines Use it with: a daily routine · a morning routine

My morning routine is: shower, breakfast, bus.

rubbish n. /ˈrʌbɪʃ/

things you throw away; also, nonsense

Use it with: take the rubbish out · rubbish bin · talk rubbish Tip: British English; American English says "garbage" or "trash".

Don't drop rubbish in the park.

shave v. /ʃeɪv/

to cut hair off your face or body with a razor

Family: shaves · shaved · shaver (n.) Use it with: shave your beard · a close shave Tip: A close shave means you nearly had an accident.

My dad shaves every morning before work.

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

sleeve n. /sliːv/

the part of a shirt or coat that covers your arm

Family: sleeves Use it with: short sleeves · long sleeves

Roll up your sleeves: it's time to work.

stool n. /stuːl/

a seat with no back or arms

Family: stools Use it with: a kitchen stool · a bar stool

I sat on a tall stool at the noodle bar.

string n. /strɪŋ/

thin rope used for tying things

Family: strings Use it with: a piece of string · guitar strings

Tie the box with a piece of string.

tissue n. /ˈtɪʃuː/

a soft paper used for wiping your nose

Family: tissues Use it with: a box of tissues · paper tissue

Can I have a tissue? I've got a cold.

tray n. /treɪ/

a flat board for carrying food and drinks

Family: trays Use it with: a tray of · a lunch tray

The waiter carried six cups on one tray.

tube n. /tjuːb/

a long thin pipe; also, a soft container like toothpaste comes in Family: tubes Use it with: a tube of toothpaste · the Tube Tip: In London, "the Tube" is the underground train.

Squeeze the toothpaste from the bottom of the tube.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

| Vocabulary and example | Write it |
|---|---|

vase n. /vɑːz/

a container for flowers

Family: vases Use it with: a vase of flowers · a glass vase

The cat knocked the vase off the table.

wipe v. /waɪp/

to clean something by moving a cloth over it

Family: wipes · wiped Use it with: wipe clean · wipe your nose · wipe up

Wipe the table after dinner, please.

zip n./v. /zɪp/

a metal or plastic fastener with two rows of teeth

Family: zips · zipped · zipper Use it with: zip up · do up your zip Tip: American English often says "zipper".

The zip on my jacket is stuck!