Word Quest 5

List 3 · Feelings and character 3

Vocabulary and example	Write it overjoyed adj. /ˌəʊvəˈdʒɔɪd/ extremely happy Use it with: overjoyed at/to She was overjoyed to see her old friend.
paradise n. /ˈpærədaɪs/ a perfect place Use it with: a shopper's paradise The island was a paradise: white sand and blue sea.
persistent adj. /pəˈsɪstənt/ continuing for a long time and not giving up Family: persistently (adv.) · persist (v.) Use it with: a persistent cough The persistent salesman called five times.
reluctant adj. /rɪˈlʌktənt/ not wanting to do something Family: reluctantly (adv.) · reluctance (n.) Use it with: reluctant to He was reluctant to leave the party.
resent v. /rɪˈzent/ to feel angry because something seems unfair Family: resents · resented · resentment (n.) She resented having to do all the work.
satisfaction n. /ˌsætɪsˈfækʃn/ the good feeling when you get what you wanted Family: satisfy (v.) He looked at his finished model with satisfaction.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

sensitive adj. /ˈsensɪtɪv/

easily upset; also, quick to react to something

Family: sensitivity (n.) Use it with: sensitive to Tip: Not the same as “sensible” (practical).

My skin is very sensitive to the sun.

sly adj. /slaɪ/

clever at tricking people

Family: slyly (adv.)

The sly fox tricked the crow.

spite n. /spaɪt/

wanting to hurt someone

Use it with: in spite of Tip: In spite of means despite.

He broke her pen out of spite.

stern adj. /stɜːn/

serious and strict

Family: sterner · sternly (adv.)

The judge gave him a stern look.

stubborn adj. /ˈstʌbən/

refusing to change your mind

Family: stubbornly (adv.)

My grandpa is too stubborn to see a doctor.

suspicious adj. /səˈspɪʃəs/

feeling that something is wrong; also, making people feel this Family: suspiciously (adv.) · suspicion (n.) Use it with: suspicious of

The guard was suspicious of the man in sunglasses.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

timid adj. /ˈtɪmɪd/

shy and easily frightened

Family: timidly (adv.)

The timid rabbit hid in the grass.

tolerant adj. /ˈtɒlərənt/

accepting people and ideas that are different

Family: tolerance (n.) · tolerate (v.)

Our city is tolerant of different cultures.

trustworthy adj. /ˈtrʌstwɜːði/

able to be trusted

She's honest and trustworthy.

vain adj. /veɪn/

too proud of your looks; also, without success

Family: vanity (n.) Use it with: in vain Tip: In vain means without success: We tried in vain.

He's so vain: he checks his hair in every window.

wail v./n. /weɪl/

to make a long, loud, sad cry

Family: wails · wailed

The baby wailed all night.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn