Word Quest 5

List 11 · Thinking and ideas 2

Vocabulary and example	Write it inevitable adj. /ɪˈnevɪtəbl/ certain to happen Family: inevitably (adv.) Change is inevitable.
intent n. /ɪnˈtent/ what you plan to do Family: intents · intend (v.) She did it with good intent.
keen adj. /kiːn/ very interested or eager Family: keener · keenly (adv.) Use it with: keen on He's keen on football.
memorable adj. /ˈmemərəbl/ worth remembering; easy to remember Family: memorably (adv.) It was a memorable day.
notion n. /ˈnəʊʃn/ an idea or belief Family: notions I had no notion of what was happening.
objective n./adj. /ɒbˈdʒektɪv/ an aim; also, based on facts, not feelings Family: objectives · objectively (adv.) Our objective is to finish by noon.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

obsess v. /ɒb'ses/

to think about something all the time

Family: obsesses · obsessed · obsession (n.) Use it with: obsessed with

He's obsessed with video games.

overcome v. /ˌəʊvə'kʌm/

to deal with and defeat a problem

Family: overcomes · overcame

She overcame her fear of water.

overlook v. /ˌəʊvə'lʊk/

to fail to notice; also, to have a view over

Family: overlooks · overlooked

I overlooked a mistake in my essay.

perceive v. /pə'si:v/

to notice or understand something in a certain way

Family: perceives · perceived · perception (n.)

How do others perceive you?

ponder v. /'pɒndə/

to think carefully about something

Family: ponders · pondered

She pondered the question for a long time.

potential n./adj. /pə'tenʃl/

the ability to develop in the future

Family: potentially (adv.)

She has great potential as a singer.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

principle n. /ˈprɪnsɪpl/

a basic rule or belief

Family: principles Use it with: in principle Tip: Don't confuse with "principal" (head of a school).

It's against my principles to lie.

priority n. /praɪˈɒrɪti/

something more important than other things

Family: priorities · prioritize (v.)

Safety is our top priority.

prospect n. /ˈprɒspekt/

the possibility that something will happen

Family: prospects

The prospect of a holiday made me happy.

resolution n. /ˌrezəˈluːʃn/

a firm decision; also, solving a problem

Family: resolutions · resolve (v.)

My New Year's resolution is to read more.

speculate v. /ˈspekjʊleɪt/

to guess without knowing all the facts

Family: speculates · speculated · speculation (n.)

People speculated about who would win.

theoretical adj. /θɪəˈretɪkl/

based on ideas, not practice

Family: theoretically (adv.) · theory (n.)

The course is mostly theoretical.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

underestimate v. /ˌʌndəˈrestɪmət/

to think something is smaller or weaker than it is Family: underestimates · underestimated Tip: Opposite: overestimate.

Never underestimate your opponent.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn