Word Quest 6

List 20 · Describing things 1

Vocabulary and example	Write it

adjacent adj. /əˈdʒeɪsənt/

next to or near something

Use it with: adjacent to

The school is adjacent to the park.

adjoin v. /əˈdʒɔɪn/

to be next to and joined to

Family: adjoins · adjoined · adjoining (adj.)

The kitchen adjoins the dining room.

adverse adj. /ædˈvɜːs/

bad or harmful

Family: adversely (adv.) Use it with: adverse weather

The medicine has no adverse effects.

ambiguous adj. /æmˈbɪgjuːəs/

having more than one possible meaning

Family: ambiguously (adv.) · ambiguity (n.)

The question was ambiguous.

analogous adj. /əˈnæləgəs/

similar in some way

Family: analogy (n.) Use it with: analogous to

The heart is analogous to a pump.

applicable adj. /əˈplɪkəbl/

relevant to a person or situation

Family: apply (v.) Tip: Not applicable (N/A) on forms means the question doesn't fit you.

This rule is applicable to all students.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

arbitrary adj. /ˈɑːbɪtrəri/

chosen without reason or a system

Family: arbitrarily (adv.)

The rules seemed arbitrary.

archaic adj. /ɑːˈkeɪɪk/

very old and no longer used

"Thou" is an archaic word for "you".

"Thou" "you"

attribute n./v. /ˈætrɪbjuːt/

a quality someone or something has; also, to say something was caused by

Family: attributes · attributed Use it with: attribute something to Tip: Stress: noun AT-tri-bute; verb at-TRIB-ute.

Patience is her best attribute.

authoritative adj. /ɔːˈθɒrɪtətɪv/

trusted and reliable; also, showing power

Family: authority (n.)

This is the most authoritative dictionary.

coherent adj. /kəʊˈhɪərənt/

clear and logical

Family: coherence (n.) Tip: Opposite: incoherent.

Write a coherent essay with a clear plan.

commonplace adj. /ˈkɒmənpleɪs/

ordinary and common

Smartphones are commonplace now.

complement v./n. /ˈkɒmplɪmənt/

to go well with something and make it better

Family: complements · complemented · complementary (adj.) Tip: Don't confuse with "compliment" (praise).

The sauce complements the fish.

Vocabulary and example	Write it

comprise v. /kəmˈpraɪz/

to consist of; to be made up of Family: comprises · comprised Use it with: be comprised of

The class comprises thirty students.

concentric adj. /kənˈsentrɪk/

(of circles) having the same centre

The target has five concentric circles.

condensed adj. /kənˈdenst/

made shorter or thicker

Family: condense (v.) Use it with: condensed milk

We read a condensed version of the novel.

congested adj. /kənˈdʒestɪd/

too crowded, especially with traffic; also, blocked in the nose

Family: congestion (n.)

The roads are congested at rush hour.

conversion n. /kənˈvɜːʃn/

changing from one form or use to another

Family: conversions · convert (v.)

The conversion of the old factory into flats took a year.

correspond v. /ˌkɒrɪˈspɒnd/

to match or be similar; also, to write letters to someone

Family: corresponds · corresponded · correspondence (n.) Use it with: correspond to/with

The numbers correspond to the answers.

counterpart n. /ˈkaʊntəpɑːt/

a person or thing with the same job in a different place

Family: counterparts

The Chinese minister met her French counterpart.

exercises.lol exercises.com.cn

Vocabulary and example	Write it

definitive adj. /dɪˈfɪnɪtɪv/

final and complete; also, the best

Family: definitively (adv.)

This is the definitive answer.

deteriorate v. /dɪˈtɪərɪəreɪt/

to become worse

Family: deteriorates · deteriorated

His health deteriorated quickly.

deterioration n. /dɪˌtɪərɪəˈreɪʃn/

the process of becoming worse

There's been a deterioration in the weather.